Dear Justice Roberts:

I decided after deliberating to share with you the type of theft and corruption that is going on with the senior officials of our government. This type of theft has been allowed to occur by holding back the settlement money to people like myself. President Obama does have the final decision on releasing these funds, but has held back because he has been ordered to by George Bush, Sr. As you will see President Obama has also financially benefited for cooperating. I am forwarding this to Congress for full investigation and request that they subpoena records of the Vatican Bank, of the senior officials of our government. I attach the chart which only demonstrates some of our government officials that have benefited in the conspiracy of blocking my funds.

I have names of other government officials that have received illegal payments that are deposited at the Vatican Bank but are not related directly to my case. In total it is billions of dollars. I hope you make the right decision.

Sincerely,

Edward Falcone
