Call HOUSE JUDICIARY to vote IMPEACHMENT ARTICLES onto House floor

(Hold Mr. Bush & Congress accountable)

If House Judiciary Committee (by simple one-vote majority) votes one of 35 articles of impeachment onto the House floor, the entire House must vote on the article(s). If the full House (by a simple one-vote majority) approves one article(s), President Bush is formally impeached (indicted) and required to stand trial before a vote in the Senate to immediately remove him from office (conviction).

“The written transcript of the articles and hearing testimony is very powerful, showing how Mr. Bush abused the U.S. military and American citizens. The articles provide evidence that members of the House and Senate Armed Services Committees and U.S. flag officers should also be prosecuted for abuse of the U.S. military and families of the dead and maimed. That is one reason why Congress is so reluctant to vote all 35 articles onto the House floor—they implicate Congress along with the President.” TomFlocco.com
