Chinese threat to dump U.S. treasuries is elephant in room of U.S./China trade war

By Benjamin Fulford Weekly Reports 57 Comments

The U.S./Chinese trade war that look most pundits by surprise is actually the result of an agreement between Eastern and Western secret societies to permanently rid the world of the Zionist menace, multiple sources agree. The other thing to note is that Western, especially American, media are ignoring the trade war elephant in the room—the threat by China and the rest of the world to dump U.S. Treasury holdings and thus formally bankrupt the U.S. Corporation.

Let's step back a minute and look at why the world wants to bankrupt the corporate U.S. government and force a regime change there.

Ever since George Bush Jr.'s handlers stole the election in the year 2000 and staged 9/11, the Zionist (Khazarian) mafia-controlled U.S. regime has spent trillions of dollars on never-ending war. This same regime, and its evil twin Israel, have created terrorist organizations like Al Qaeda and Daesh to perpetuate this war. This same regime has been actively trying to kill 90% of the world's population with bioweapons, starvation, nuclear war, and now 5G microwave technology. The latest sign of how antisocial this regime is came last week when 187 countries, with the sole exception of the U.S., agreed to stop dumping toxic plastic into the oceans.

The Chinese used to support this endless warmongering and murder by buying U.S. Treasury bonds, until they realized they were paying the Americans to kill them. They thus decided to take their dollars elsewhere and spend them on helping the planet, and the multi-trillion-dollar Belt and Road Initiative is an example. Now suddenly the Zionist controllers of the Washington, D.C. regime are realizing their US$800 billion dollar per year trade deficit and US$ trillion dollar per year budget deficit are endangering the survival of their regime.

The budget deficit is being covered up by accounting tricks (such as the Feds using proxies to buy their own bonds), but the trade deficit is another matter. It is based on real stuff in the real world and cannot be covered up with accounting tricks forever. As the saying goes, "You can avoid reality for a certain amount of time, but eventually it has a way of catching up with you."

In an attempt to fix the problem, U.S. President Donald Trump asked the Chinese to buy a "trillion dollars" worth of American stuff. The Chinese rationally responded that the U.S. does not have that amount of "stuff" to sell even if they wanted to. Now, the Trump plan to use tariffs to fix the trade deficit is going to be a tax on U.S. consumers and will not help the U.S. economy become competitive. That's because the so-called U.S. dollar is too expensive, but the Americans cannot devalue it in order to make their exports competitive because the "U.S. dollar" is not an American currency. It is owned by European and Asian royals, together with international oligarchs, who do not want it to lose value.

On the other hand, if the U.S. government started issuing its own currency, say worth half what a U.S. dollar is now worth, U.S. consumers would still pay more for Chinese imports just as they would with tariffs, but this time U.S. exports would be competitive.

The U.S. government could then spend as many trillions of, let's say, greenbacks, as it wanted to in order to fix its domestic infrastructure, etc.

The main drawback is that the U.S. military could no longer afford to be guarding corporate interests at its 800 or so locations around the world. That's why the White Dragon Society (WDS), Asian secret societies, the British Commonwealth, and others are proposing an alternative. This would involve replacing the entire political structure in Washington, D.C. with competent new people. The current system is so corrupt with its fake elections and bribed and blackmailed politicians that it is beyond reform.

However, the U.S. is full of competent and honest people who ran into a glass ceiling in the current system because they were immune to Zionist bribery and blackmail. These are the people who would rebuild a debt-free Republic of the United States of America. In such a scenario, the multi-polar world would pool its resources to transform the U.S. military-industrial complex into a benevolent force for planetary protection and space exploration.

Okay, now let's finally get to the breaking news of the past week. The biggest news from last week is that newly installed Japanese Emperor Naruhito issued coded calls for help, according to British royal family sources. The cry for help was conveyed through "neuro-linguistic programming" in a brief speech the Emperor made, the sources say. He used "a certain combination of words written in a certain style and embedded with wordings and other devices" to let the world know the Imperial Family was being attacked, the sources say. The attacks were carried out by ...

... "Japanese gangsters subcontracting for David Rockefeller Jr. and the French branch of the Rothschild family," according to Japanese right-wing sources close to the Emperor. Special Forces are now hunting these gangsters down, WDS sources say.

The death of Italian intelligence agent "50-year-old Massimo I" who was found "lying in a pool of his own blood and vomit" in Paris last week was also part of the secret war on the Zionists, P2 Freemason sources say. "Cohen family mercenaries working for members of the Rothschild family closest to the Cabal" hired the renegade Italian secret service agent "in a conspiracy against German banks," they say. These people think "hatred and war" can prevent them from losing their "faltering financial hegemony," they added. The P2 didn't directly take responsibility for Massimo's death, though.

There are also signs the U.S. regime is planning to put pressure on China by fomenting trouble in Thailand, Indonesia, and Laos, according to Asian secret society sources. One source says the police in Indonesia "have already been handed five bullets from military storehouses for security purposes in preparation for May 22," when results of the Indonesian presidential election are expected to be formally announced. The sources say similar trouble will brew in Thailand and Laos as well due to disputed elections.

The WDS has advised the CIA that trying to stage "color revolutions" in Southeast Asia would backfire even more than they did in Venezuela, Iran, and Turkey. Pentagon sources warn that "after the failed coup in Venezuela and opposition to military intervention, Trump may have no choice but to fire neocons John Bolton, Elliot Abrams, and Mike Pompeo."

Also, "The devastating armyworm pest" could soon "affect important Chinese staples such as rice, soybeans, and corn," a new U.S. government report said this week. "The voracious, inch-long fall armyworm...can breed rapidly, spread great distances, and is hugely difficult to eradicate," the report says. The report adds the "armyworm" has already "devastated agricultural produce across Africa and the Americas, where it originated, and has now begun to march across Asia." The timing of this outbreak, or the false fear-mongering report about it, makes it look suspiciously like an attack on China's food supply related to the trade war.

There was also a false flag attack in the United Arab Emirates last week that the Mossad-linked site Debka was quick to blame on Iran, even though the attack was carried out by aircraft with French

This obviously Israeli false-flag attack on Saudi Arabian oil tankers is almost certainly retaliation for a recent Saudi pivot away from the Zionists and towards China.

http://www.xinhuanet.com/english/2019-05/08/c_138043810.htm

Meanwhile, in the U.S. patriots are intensifying their fight to liberate their country from Khazarian Zionist rule. Here is what our Pentagon sources had to say about the fight:

"After two lost years with Mueller and giving Zionists enough rope to hang themselves, former White House Chief of Staff Marine General John Kelly finally added gravitas to [the recent anti-Zionist] New York Times cartoon and declared war on Israel by publicly saying, 'Trump's family (Javanka) needs to be dealt with.'" The source says, "This also implies Sheldon Adelson and all unregistered foreign agents of Israel."

In other anti-Zionist developments, "the shyster Israeli drug company TEVA is being sued by 44 states for the price-fixing of generic drugs, with the Department of Justice lurking in the background," the Pentagon sources note.

Furthermore, "The House snubbed Israel by not passing the AIPAC-drafted $38 billion military aid package that also criminalizes free speech," the sources note. In a further sign the Zionists are losing control, the sources noted that Congress also invited "BDS (Boycott, Divestment Sanctions against Israel) and Palestine supporter Imam Omar Suleiman to deliver the opening prayer on May 9th, while House Speaker Nancy Pelosi said such moves did not mean the Democratic Party-controlled house was anti-Semitic."

The military-industrial complex is also under assault, the sources note. The U.S. Air Force has commandeered the Boeing 737 investigations because the FAA and Boeing have lost the trust of the flying public, the sources say. Lockheed Martin, meanwhile, is "reeling from F-35 problems," they add. "Boeing is subject to death by 1,000 cuts with drip-drip media reports, global regulators, whistleblowers, shareholders, investigators, prosecutors, customers, pilots, flight attendants, passengers, NASA, and the U.S. military weighing in," they elaborate.

The fight against Zionist extortion, hypocrisy, and crime is also raging in Poland, as locals fight for truth about how Polish Christians suffered as much as Jews did during WWII.

That's one alarming elephant in the room! Thank you Ben, and good morning to everyone! Interesting that only yesterday the New York Times blazed the headline that it is only RT "Russian propaganda" that 5G is harmful.....

The U.S. / Israel is HELL BENT on war with Iran.
NEW ATTACK TODAY

Ok, so with the precedent that has been set, there might not have actually been an attack, the zio press can bring fiction to life by spewing a lie and sticking to it. Here is the new line: Drones carrying explosives damaged two oil pumping stations in Saudi Arabia. And Iran has a very good drone program. People can laugh all they want after the propaganda spew, but it is a fact that Iran is not a backwards country.

So obviously, what is going on with this is that to get a plausible story out there, an attack, which only Iran, Israel, the United States, and (maybe) the Saudis could have pulled off. There's not much else out there with drone programs that good.

So let's plug this into the thinktabulator

What happened in the UAE early Sunday morning CST? A MASSIVE 911 scale terror attack was reported in the Arab press (including Iran). This attack had 10 oil tankers ablaze in a UAE owned port with "American and French" planes being the cause. That's BIG. But it did not happen. But it was REPORTED EVERYWHERE, far too many news outlets had this story "as it was happening" for it to have been a mistake. Only, the attack did not happen. Obviously then, there was a plan to do this and someone released the story line to the press, fully scripted, as if it happened and it could therefore not happen FIVE HOURS LATER – it was supposed to happen at 8:30 AM CST and someone spilled the beans on it right around 3 AM CST. That's a GREAT way to kill a false flag, ONLY NO.

Drizzling over an opportunity to blow Iran away, Israeli puppet state Saudi Arabia reported that 4 of it's tankers were attacked by Iran, with a large hole blown through the hull of each one. Only, they did not catch fire, the vapors did not explode (if they were empty) and there's no pictures and no casualties. THINKTABULATOR SAYS: TODAY'S ATTACKS ON SAUDI ARABIA ARE A HOAX, YOU CANT JUST SPEW LIKE THIS AFTER A MAJOR FALSE FLAG WAS BLOWN TO THE WILD BLUE YONDER EVEN IF YOU CLAIM YOU WERE ATTACKED AFTER IT WAS BLOWN TO THE WILD BLUE YONDER.

Israel would not be stupid enough to do this after having the lid blown off a plan the way it was with the "10 oil tankers ablaze", but the Saudis? Believe me, they are not very bright and are underachievers on top of it. I lay this "drone attack" that likely did not happen at all squarely on Saudi Arabia. The first one that got busted before it happened was no doubt Israel and the U.S., and after that failed the Saudis could not cope so they started spewing "multiple attack by Iran" BULLSHIT.

Trump will lose because only the "Extreme right" supports him??!!??

Ok, so the new line I am seeing pop up everywhere is that Trump's base is the "extreme right" and BuzzFeed even invented a new 14 year old girl as the "leader of the right" out of thin air today. I'd like to know how they made that designation. ANYWAY

The line is that Trump is going to lose the election because he's only supported by the "extreme right". To that I say:

500 brain sucking baby killers cannot force 160 million people to the "extreme right" no matter how much the left wants to dream. That's not enough cumulative evil to offset where "center" is when there is such a large number of good people.

False flag update:

"Credible military assessment" has concluded that Iran attached explosives to the outsides of 4 oil tankers and blew holes in the hulls, but the ships did not explode, did not catch fire, did not sink, did not lean over and there are NO PICTURES and NO CASUALTIES

And why would there need to be? "They" got away with hoaxing two synagogue shootings, so why do they actually need pictures of these oil tankers with holes in them? PICS OR IT DID NOT HAPPEN. PICS OR BULLSHIT. And then, after that, try to prove Iran did it. There will be no such process of proof, because nothing happened except a media spew that they think will make everyone forget that the original story line was 10 tankers ablaze in a UAE port. WHERE DID THAT

STORY GO?

Heads up Oroville

I still think nothing is going to happen to the dam, but there is an anomaly worth mentioning

They should be letting water out and they are not. There is a major storm system on the way and all the up stream reservoirs are full. There is no place left to hold the water. Some are speculating they are holding the water and praying because the new spillway will blow. However I think they are holding it either to test the emergency spillway or because they know damn well the farmers got screwed over during a false "drought", and they probably STILL have to meet water "commitments" for the "delta smelt" which is an invasive species that does not belong there anyway, but whatever when communists who hate America run the show

So what I think is really going on here is they are loading up the dams to record never before seen levels, and are saying SCREW FLOOD CONTROL, WE NEED THE WATER TO FIGHT THE COMMIES and they are therefore going to let everything fill to the max and let the commies in Sacramento HAVE IT if flood control really was needed. How does 500, 000 CFS through that nice souped up spillway sound? It is only rated to 270, 000 but I'd bet it could handle half a mil. The way they are pushing things right now, circumstance may require it, they are pushing it THAT BAD. They are not supposed to have every dam in the system totally topped off BEFORE the snowpack is gone, and with 5-7 inches of rain on the way, the show could be spectacular. Let's hope the dam handles it, some are speculating it will not. If they did open the spillway beyond it's rated 270, 000 they'd swamp Sacramento and everything else downstream

BAD.

It probably is not as bad as I am saying or as motivated as I am saying but one can dream
 . . . and I can't be too far off.
