COUNTRY RECIPIENTS ARE SAID TO BE BEING PAID WITH U.S. TREASURY SECURITIES

We have authoritative written and verbal reports that the country payees are being paid in US Treasury securities. The payments are having to be made within an ultra-tight timeframe dictated inter alia by the de facto freezing of the Citibank $6.2 trillion lent by Her Majesty the Queen and Prince Alaweed of Saudi Arabia.

Yesterday morning, 19th June 2008, the Directors of Citibank were prevented from entering their offices in New York. Separately, a Canadian lady, said to have been representing The Queen, was flown under heavily armed guard and protection from Canada to New York, where she arrived at Citibank, to provide inter alia the necessary answerback that Citibank had failed to furnish on 18th June, when all the other paying banks provided the answerbacks required of them.

Among the payees who, it has been reported, will receive US Treasury securities, is Leo/Lee Wanta.

PAYMENTS REPORTED TO BE HAVING TO BE MADE TODAY, WITHIN THE TIME CONSTRAINTS

Our sources confirm (in writing) that these WHOLESale payments are having to be made today, on pain of 'punitive action', and in order to conform with the ultra-tight timeframe that we have been advised applies as a consequence of recent events.

A sanction hanging over the United States is that the Bank of England has the option of freezing assets held within US dollar 'offshore' accounts held at the Bank by US parties and others.

We understand on the very best authority that there has been grave concern in US financial and intelligence circles that this might happen in the event of any further malicious foul-up on the long-established 'Never-Pay' model: which, being interpreted, means that the WHOLESale Settlements have to be implemented today.

PAYMENT WITH TREASURIES IMPLIES SCRAPPING THE WANTA PLAN

By paying Wanta and country recipients with US Treasury Securities, rather than in cash, it will be possible, inter alia, for the transparent corporate securities account established for Wanta and his corporation, conforming with the tight disciplines imposed by the US securities regulations, to be bypassed, with the obvious implication that the Wanta Plan might not be implemented, and so that questionable finance operations can continue below the radar as though nothing had happened.

The whole point of The Wanta Plan, as sold to the Group of Seven (G-7) financial powers in June 2006 and reconfirmed at their meeting in Northern Germany in June 2007, which The Queen asked should be implemented 'for the sake of the whole of humanity', was that geofinancial transactions should take place ON THE BOOKS, fully taxed, in a consistently transparent manner, minimising the scope for ongoing fraudulent finance operations behind-the-scenes, whereby US holders of high office and associates enrich themselves at the expense of the American people and the world.

However as the Editor now possesses written documentation and verbal confirmations from the most reliable sources, who confide in us, that the countries and Wanta are largely being paid with US Treasury Securities, we deduce that the Wanta Plan, which we promoted with Wanta's ongoing enthusiastic support via our platform for a prolonged period, backed by extensive documentation faxed by him to us (including multiple correspondence from one of his lawyers to the President of the United States and other top US figures requesting payment of the funds into the agreed-upon corporate securities account with Morgan Stanley), may not be implemented.

THIS WOULD MEAN THAT THE QUEEN AND THE GROUP OF SEVEN MAY HAVE BEEN DUPED

Any such development would mean that not only has Her Majesty The Queen again been double-crossed, but so have the Group of Seven financial powers – and that the anticipated fundamental reform of the exotic finance system will not take place, despite Wanta's campaign, via our platform, that it MUST. This would represent a disgraceful betrayal of 'the whole of humanity'.

The parties concerned would, we speculate, then take steps to dismantle the disciplines imposed by the Basel-II environment, placing a version of the false financial markets prospectus implied by the so-called 'Paulson proposals' onto the US Statute Book early next year.

FALSE PROSPECTUS FOR FINANCIAL MARKETS IS THE OPPOSITE OF WHAT IS REQUIRED

Indeed former Congressman Armev, who was Leader of the House of Representatives during the Clinton Administration, was actually quoted in a CNBC interview on 19th June 2008 as saying words to the effect that the more the 'Paulson proposals' are out there, the more likely is it that legislation will be passed to put the proposals into effect.

Promotion of this false prospectus represents nothing less than a carefully-timed sales operation, the intention of which is to put into place a new, 1920s-style, free-for-all US financial and securities market environment, that will then facilitate open-ended fraudulent finance against a background of minimal regulation – the precise opposite of what is needed and what we promoted endlessly in 2006 and 2007, with Wanta's specific cooperation and blessing, and on his instructions, which is:

- More regulation because rules and regulations have for many years not been enforced in the United States, following the disastrous repeal of the Glass-Steagall legislation fronted by former Texan Senator Gramm on behalf of George Bush Sr. and Greenspan.
- Full disclosure right across the system, applicable to both source and use of funds.
- Full disclosure of all other dimensions of market transactions.

We will issue a detailed rebuttal of the false prospectus calling itself the 'Paulson proposals' as soon as time permits.

THE CORRUPT EUROPEAN COMMISSION COUNTERPARTIES

A hidden rationale for this 'phoenix' plan to consolidate a so-called 'principles-based' approach to the financial markets is that the US criminal classes have a ready-made secret 'Black' counterparty in Europe, in the format of the institutionally corrupt European Commission.

Investigations by the Editor of this service have resulted in the surfacing of internal European Union documentation proving that there has been a 700% increase of EU funds over the past five years that are no longer managed by the European Commission's services, but rather by non-transparent 'international trust funds' which may be engaged in exotic financial transactions.

As mentioned in our report dated 18th June, the Editor will be visiting the European Parliament next week. In the course of this visit, one of his lines of investigative enquiry will focus on these suspicious 'international trust funds' which we have reason to believe may indeed contain vast stashes of Euros converted from dollar-denominated assets stolen in the course of the multiple thefts perpetrated by US official parties that have been partially exposed in these reports.

Separately, International Currency Review, Volume 33, Numbers 3 & 4 (consisting of 976 pages) provides documented proof of the double-cross operations that have been evident for some time, apparently aimed at ditching previously intended reform of the world financial system, in favour of corrupt 'business as usual'.
