Dear Ms Helgerson

Re: Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta and the behaviour of the Wisconsin Department of Revenue generally notwithstanding Judge Michael B. Torphy's Restitution Order and Absolute Discharge from Restitution effective 14th November 2005: refer to Title 18 USC Section 4: Misprision of Felony in all dimensions of this specific case and generally: Repeated illegal Wisconsin State Civil Tax Assessments for the same amount of $14,129 (paid under protest THREE TIMES, in May and June 1992 and again on 21 July 2005: now illegally demanded a fourth time) of a non-resident of the State of Wisconsin/USA: see inter alia the 24-page Supplement published with International Currency Review Volume 31, 3/4 (November 2006) and www.worldreports.org/Home Page/Archive posting dated March 20th 2007:

I refer to our telephone conversation today timed at 7.30pm London (UK) time today, and thank you for your courtesy in taking the call and for confirming that Roger Ervin, Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Revenue, will telephone me concerning the matter of your Department's repeated illegal multiple civil tax assessment billings for the same amount of $14,129 (+) and its 17+ years-long harassment of Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta, who has been a lawful resident of Vienna, Austria, since June 1988 and therefore is not and has not been during the tax periods cited in your documentation liable for any Wisconsin State tax at all. (I was directed at 7.23pm London time today to call your number 608-261 2271, by Ms Terry Alexander of the Wisconsin Department of Revenue).

I asked you why your Department has raised the same civil tax assessment against Ambassador Leo Wanta on three separate occasions and has taken and banked the three checks concerning the same amount of $14,129 (+), of which the front and reverse of each check are held by myself and others, and why your Department has continued to demand, with interest, the same amount a fourth time, notwithstanding specifically that the full amount was paid under protest the third time on behalf of the Ambassador, to the Department of Corrections by Attorney Steven Goodwin on 21st July 2005.

For your further information, by way of reminder, John Dipko, Public Information Director, Wisconsin Department of Corrections, confirmed to me in his email dated 10th November 2006 timed at 16:36 UK time that on 4th August 2005 his Department sent to your Department a check by way of full settlement in the amount of $24,900.91 payable to the Wisconsin Department of Revenue, thereby settling in full the third illegally and incorrectly demanded civil tax assessment amount of $14,129 (plus interest etc) which had already been paid twice under protest as 'nuisance payments' in May and June 1992, as confirmed by the documentation on file and as documented in the transcript of the County Court of The Hon Judge Michael B. Torphy Jr./Dane County, Wisconsin/USA.

As a consequence of the third protest payment, on 21st July 2005, of the same illegally raised civil tax assessment, following the decision in this matter of Judge Michael B. Torphy Jr., Mr Matthew J. Frank, Secretary, Wisconsin Department of Corrections, issued a DISCHARGE effective 14th November 2005 ordering that 'Leo E. Wanta is discharged ABSOLUTELY'. Per Judge Michael B. Torphy's Restitution Order all 'obligations' to the State of Wisconsin (albeit charged illegally and apparently corruptly quadruplicated by the Wisconsin Department of Revenue), have been paid in full. The Department of Revenue has nothing to do with this matter, has no right to be involved, and as stated the Ambassador has in any case been discharged from restitution ABSOLUTELY since 14th November 2005.

Notwithstanding the above, I gather that the Ambassador should have received a Satisfaction of Judgment document but that he has not been provided with it, which, given that the Department of Corrections sent your Department $24,900.91 in full settlement on 4th August 2005, is clearly felonious. This is especially the case, given that Mr Gregg T Frazier, Central Audit Section, Wisconsin Department of Revenue, enclosed with his letter to the Ambassador dated 30th October 2006 demanding a fourth payment of the same civil income tax assessment, an 'amended' printout annotated in handwriting: 'Per Wisconsin Supreme Court Order Dated December 30, 2005', an 'order' of which the Ambassador had and has no knowledge, since he, your victim, was not served with any such Wisconsin Supreme Court Order at any time.

This further means, in plain British English, at any rate, that Mr Wanta has no obligations whatsoever to the State of Wisconsin and of course that any Wisconsin State Civil Tax Assessments against Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta, a non-resident of the State of Wisconsin/USA since June 1988, are spurious, illegal and intermeddle with the Hon. Judge Torphy's Restitution Order and subsequent Discharge signed by the Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Corrections.

We also hold of course copies of (a) the receipt Number 2270992 PP signed by Wisconsin Department of Corrections Agent Michelle Riel referring to Attorney Steven Goodwin's check number 1098 for $30,626.97 and confirming that the Department of Corrections duly received his check on 21st July 2005, from which the above payment of $24,900.91 to the Wisconsin Department of Revenue was taken; and (b) a WI/DOC computer printout dated 22nd July 2005 signed by Agent Michelle Riel marked 'Paid in full 7/21/05', referencing the amount of $30,626.97, which self-evidently further confirms payment in full to the Department of Corrections, which is the lead Department in this matter given its 'ownership' of Judge Torphy's Restitution Order and the administration thereof throughout.

Although you represent or are the spokeswoman for the Department's Bureau of Communications, you resorted to the statement that you cannot comment on the tax affairs of a (purported) individual taxpayer and you reiterated this statement four of five times, even though I was able to understand you the first time. However the purpose of my enquiry is also to elicit an explanation of your Department's behaviour generally, arising out of this scandal, so that we can be in a position to report on this matter to the international financial community accordingly. The purpose of your office is presumably to communicate, not to block press enquiries, as you have done on this occasion. I pointed out several times that the issue is not just the spurious purported WI State tax affairs of Leo Emil Wanta, but also, as a consequence thereof, the ethical and possibly criminal behaviour of your Department. You then stated that 'I am familiar with your connection with Mr Leo Wanta', and also indicated that you had read or seen our recent website report on this matter, dated 20th March 2007, posted on www.worldreports.org/Home /Archive. Later in the conversation you stated that you are not familiar with the detail of the case.

The detail of the case, including the full text of Mr Dipko's email to me dated 10th November 2006, is posted on our website as stated above and was earlier elaborated in the 24-page Supplement published with International Currency Review, Volume 31, Numbers 3 & 4, last November, for the benefit and information of the international and US domestic financial, intelligence and political communities.

I further reminded you that on 3rd November 2005, when I also spoke with you, I spoke to Gregg T. Frazier, Chief, Central Audit Section, concerning these issues, and that in the course of that conversation he indicated to me that 'I will have to look into the matter'. He made this statement to me twice in the same telephone conversation.

At about 8.40pm UK time today you telephoned me on 1-800 661 4809 and stated that you had contacted the office of the Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Revenue, Roger Ervin, and that he had instructed you to tell me that (quote) 'he will not make any comment on the Wanta case', thereby of course specifically commenting on the Wanta case and indicating his familiarity with it. In this second conversation I reminded you that you had stated specifically that Mr Ervin WILL call me. You made that statement twice. I therefore asked you why you had said this, and you replied that you had 'checked with the Secretary', which is not consistent with what you stated to me in the first telephone conversation of today's date (see above). I had been led to believe by you that Mr Ervin WILL telephone me about this matter and you have not complied with your earlier statement.

I also reminded you, in our second conversation today, that you had informed Mr Richard N. Goldberger, a journalist in Utah, that the Wanta 'file is closed'. Specifically I have an email confirming this, from Mr Goldberger, dated 20th January 2007 (timed at 13:15 UK time). You responded: 'I apologise'.

When you stonewalled in the second telephone call above, I again pointed out that this matter is broader than the issue of a purported individual taxpayer's spurious tax affairs, as it impinges upon the ethical and possibly criminal behaviour of your Department. The facts are the facts, and they are fully documented, with the necessary copies held in multiple locations. I closed by stating that, given your Department's obvious stonewalling and failure to assist my enquiries, there are many ways to skin a cat, meaning that other avenues, I understand, will therefore be followed in order to bring this matter to the appropriate outcome.

Should you and your colleagues decide, in the light of the above and on further consideration, that it would be helpful for your reiterated and specific undertaking to me that Mr Roger Ervin will telephone me, to be fulfilled, I will of course be very pleased to take his call on 1-800 661 4809.

It is interesting to note that Leo Emil Wanta was illegally detained on July 7, 1993 in Lausanne, Switzerland for failure to pay US $14,129.00 for a 1988/1989 State of Wisconsin tax assessment; ignoring the facts that the US $14,129.00 was paid-in-full and settled by Wisconsin Department of Revenue Agreement, June 24, 1992.

While waiting for illegal abduction - July 7 to 17 November 1993, Wanta received chemical castration in Suisse Prison with all other inmates, contrary to numerous International Laws, USA/Canada Laws, Vienna Convention, Wisconsin Statutes, inter alia.

Wanta returned to USA by illegal and forceful abduction; whereas, a U.S. District Court on 19 November 1993, issued a full dismissal with prejudice in relation to false allegations of State of Wisconsin in May, 1993 to U.S. Federal Megistrate to abduct Wanta via U/S. State Department, Wisconsin State Attorney General, Wisconsin Department of Revenue tax agents and Suisse authorities through subterfuge, conspiracy, perjury, inter alia.

Dear Mr. President:

Many thanks for your letter endorsing Mr. Leo Wanta for a sub-cabinet level position with the Department of Defense.

I had previously received Mr. Wanta's resume and I am pleased to tell you that he has been interviewed by my executive personnel staff as well as the Presidential personnel staff at the White House. You can be assured that Mr. Wanta is receiving every consideration as we seek the most qualified team to support President Reagan.

Thank you again for taking the time and trouble to write to me on this.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely,

JUSTICE

NEWSWEEK

J. Ray McDermott & Co., a major builder of oil platforms, paid $508,615 in bribes to the vice chairman of Tenneco Oil Co. to undertake lucrative construction projects in the Gulf of Mexico. But the cost of doing business jumped unexpectedly last year after the firm pleaded guilty on seven criminal counts. A Federal judge in New Orleans not only fined McDermott $103,000, but confiscated its $897,000 in illegal profits from the Tenneco deals.

While serving as mayor of Lansing, Ill., for sixteen years, Jack O. McNary shook down real-estate developers and invested his booty in two private businesses. Convicted last year of extortion, McNary was sen-pit as underworld hit men. While Justice officials concede the law must be applied cautiously, they see no need to sheath their weapon. "This is a valuable tool," says Attorney General-designate Benjamin Civiletti. "We will not shy away from using it to pursue corrupt enterprises which do not fit the layman's view of organized crime." With about 200 RICO cases already filed, and the government increasing its use of the statute, the American Bar Association has scheduled a special seminar on how to deal with RICO at its convention this week.

RICO is one of the broadest criminal statutes Congress has ever passed. The law first enumerates 24 Federal and eight led seven nursing-home owners and three pharmacists to plead guilty and pay fines of $1 million.

The law also gives prosecutors extraordinary latitude to trace crime back to the otherwise insulated kingpin. "The statute allows a prosecutor to paint a broader picture than could be normally seen by a jury," says Jeremiah T. O'Sullivan, chief of the Organized Crime Strike Force in Boston. For instance, John Christopher was tried in Tampa, Fla., in 1975 for masterminding a ring that kidnapped women and forced them into prostitution. Normally, the scope of the evidence would have been limited to the specific kidnapping; at the RICO trial, however, the judge permitted

A new spoils system: The government could not seize a private mansion, but it could take profits from an oil rig, and possibly a used-car lot tenced to three years in prison. He will also have to ransom his businesses, which the government now effectively controls.

These cases share a dubious distinction. The Justice Department prosecuted them—and other button-down crimes—with a law designed specifically to convict Mafia capos. Known as RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations), the nine-year-old law allows the government to seize legitimate businesses if they have been used for illegal schemes or as investments for dirty money. Says Chicago attorney Sherman Magidson, "RICO can reach out and castrate people."

The RICO law frightens many lawyers and judges. They worry about language so loosely drawn that it lets the government sweep even small-time white-collar defendants and public officials into the same state crimes such as murder, extortion or mail fraud; then it states that anyone found to have participated in two of them within a ten-year period has undertaken a pattern of racketeering. If prosecutors can link such patterns to an interstate "enterprise"—loosely defined as virtually any personal association or business—the defendants become subject to imprisonment for up to twenty years, fines of $25,000 per count and forfeiture. "Taking away businesses from these guys is like taking away tools from a burglar," says New Jersey Federal prosecutor George Wilson.

RICO is an extremely potent weapon for prosecutors. In plea bargaining, when most cases are settled, the potential RICO penalties often lead defendants to make a deal with the government rather than take their chances with a jury. In Chicago, for instance, the fear of forfeiting their businesses

50 witnesses to describe Christopher's criminal behavior over thirteen years.

The government has used RICO in several important prosecutions against reputed mobsters. In Chicago, two alleged organized-crime hit men were sent to prison for 30 years after RICO convictions. And in Boston, after convicting four extortionists, the government seized the contents of five massage parlors—including 5 gallons of massage lotion and a Christmas tree.

VICTORY: Much of the controversy about RICO has focused on white-collar and government corruption cases. Federal officials won an important victory last month when the U.S. appeals court in New York upheld a guilty verdict in a complicated RICO hospital-fraud prosecution. Prosecutors established that Karl R. Huber, a Phi Beta Kappa Princeton graduate and Harvard law-school-trained attorney, had

In Brief

Thompson records destroyed by mistake

MADISON — Several hundred boxes of records from former Gov. Tommy Thompson's administration were mistakenly destroyed instead of going to the Wisconsin Historical Society archives, officials said Monday.

Tom Solberg, a spokesman for the state Department of Administration, said the records were inadvertently put on the wrong truck from a state warehouse and sent to a Green Bay paper mill, where they were turned into pulp.

The destroyed records covered Thompson's gubernatorial career, from Jan. 1, 1987, to Dec. 31, 2001, when he left Wisconsin to become secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Thompson spokesman Tony Jewell said it was sad news. "We all know how the current administration is bound and determined to erase Gov. Thompson's legacy," he said.

Solberg said the vast majority of records were constituency correspondence, and others involved extraditions and executive clemency. Correspondence related to the construction and public financing of Miller Park also was lost. Solberg said it's possible there are copies of some destroyed records and that the amount lost was only a "small fraction of the total amount of papers from the governor's office during that period."

Thompson donated his private papers to Marquette University.

Dear Mr. Wanta,

I have just been informed that at the last meeting of the membership committee of the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle your name was placed in nomination by Senator Phil Gramm and you were accepted for membership.

Last year the Inner Circle had many outstanding members including Joe Coors, Estee Lauder, Arnold Schwarzenegger, George Shultz and Sam Walton. I know you will enjoy meeting your fellow members at Inner Circle functions in Washington and in other locations around the country.

Barbara and I are especially excited about the news of your nomination because we will have the chance to be with you at the Inner Circle's next gathering in Washington, D.C., on May 2nd and 3rd. At that time we will be attending the Inner Circle's Spring Dinner Dance and we certainly hope you can make it.

Your formal invitation will be mailed to you in a few days. I urge you to respond as soon as possible.

In closing, I want to congratulate you on your nomination and I hope that you will decide to accept membership in this most important organization. Barbara and I look forward to seeing you in Washington on May 3rd.

Sincerely,

Seventh Day

Today bring to Me the Souls who especially venerate and glorify My Mercy*, and immerse them in My mercy. These souls sorrowed most over my Passion and entered most deeply into My spirit. They are living images of My Compassionate Heart. These souls will shine with a special brightness in the next life. Not one of them will go into the fire of hell. I shall particularly defend each one of them at the hour of death.

Most Merciful Jesus, whose Heart is Love Itself, receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls of those who particularly extol and venerate the greatness of Your mercy. These souls are mighty with the very power of God Himself. In the midst of all afflictions and adversities they go forward, confident of Your mercy; and united to You, O Jesus, they carry all mankind on their shoulders. These souls will not be judged severely, but Your mercy will embrace them as they depart from this life.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls who glorify and venerate Your greatest attribute, that of Your fathomless mercy, and who are enclosed in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. These souls are a living Gospel; their hands are full of deeds of mercy; and their hearts, overflowing with joy, sing a canticle of mercy to You, O Most High! I beg You O God:

Show them Your mercy according to the hope and trust they have placed in You. Let there be accomplished in them the promise of Jesus, who said to them that during their life, but especially at the hour of death, the souls who will venerate this fathomless mercy of His, He, Himself, will defend as His glory. Amen.

"My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge"

CUR LADY OF GOOD REMEDY

800 years ago Christians were being captured by the Moslems and sold into slavery by the thousands, and nobody knew what to do about it. Then, in the year 1198, a man had an idea. St. John of Matha founded the Trinitarians to go to the slave markets, buy the Christian slaves and set them free.

To carry out this plan, the Trinitarians needed large amounts of money. So, they placed their fund-raising efforts under the patronage of Mary. They were so successful that, over the centuries, the Trinitarians were able to free thousands and thousands of people and to return them safely home.

In gratitude for her miraculous assistance, St. John of Matha honored Mary with the title of "Our Lady of Good Remedy." Devotion to Mary under this ancient title is widely known in Europe and Latin America, and the Church celebrates her feast day on October 8. Our Lady of Good Remedy is often depicted as the Virgin Mary handing a bag of money to St. John of Matha.

When in need—for whatever reason, but especially where you have had difficulty obtaining help—invoke the aid of Our Lady of Good Remedy, and you will surely experience the power of her intercession.
