Dear Mr. Wanta,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him who is afar and to him who is near".

Sincerely yours,

Yitzhak Rabin

Stuck in the Promised Land

Israel: With unrest rising, many settlers want out

NOT EVERYONE IN THE MILITANT Jewish settlement of Kiryat Arba thinks it's the promised land. "We went because of the money; it was cheap to get an apartment there," says Sarah Malul, who moved to Kiryat Arba 10 years ago. Malul and her husband, Avi, raising four children in a fearful place surrounded by enraged Palestinians, often thought of moving to Jerusalem. But they couldn't afford to. Then Baruch Goldstein, a Kiryat Arba resident, gunned down 29 Muslim worshipers in nearby Hebron, and everything changed. "My 8-year-old said to me, 'I'm afraid the Arabs will kill me now,'" recalls Sarah. The Maluls demanded government help—and with a $275 monthly subsidy, they were able to rent a tiny apartment in Jerusalem. "I feel like a prisoner who has been freed," says Sarah.

Thousands of Jews living in other settlements deep in the Israeli-occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip want to get out, too. But it's not so easy. They were lured there by government offers of huge mortgages at rock-bottom rates, at a time when Israel's leaders wanted Jews to populate Arab lands captured in 1967. The settlers bought homes they could never afford in Israel proper. Yet now that Israel is preparing to trade land for peace, the same houses have plunged in value. "Many families want to leave," says Malul, who can't find a buyer for her apartment in Kiryat Arba. "But they don't have the money to make that choice."

The trick is to survive Palestinian stones, bullets and bombs until the government of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin offers compensation, then take the money and run. Settlers recall the precedent set at Yamit, the Sinai settlement returned to Egypt as part of the 1979 peace treaty. Then the government paid $300,000 for each evacuated farm, and $75,000 to $150,000 for other households that pulled up stakes. So far, however, Rabin has resisted pressure to offer a deal to the settlers in the West Bank and Gaza. "He doesn't want them to leave now because he's still negotiating," says Hagai Meirum, one of two Labor Party legislators running a hot line for settlers who want out. "Rabin

Palestinians will think we are weak."

That approach has left many settlers feeling like pawns in an increasingly dangerous game. Just last week the Islamic militant group Hamas issued a warning to Jews living in certain West Bank and Gaza settlements: leave by March 15 or face increased attacks. The threat is not empty bluster. In February Hamas gunmen shot dead a pregnant woman who was traveling between Tel Aviv and the suburban-style settlement of Ariel. More recently, nervous Israeli soldiers killed an Ariel resident who was driving at night—they thought the

So far the government is providing only minimal assistance to help relocate low-income families desperate to get out. Estimates for the cost of fully compensating most of the 125,000 settlers range up to $10 billion. "Somebody will have to pay for it," says Meirum, who suggests that Saudi Arabia could help if settlements were used to house Palestinians in the future. Washington is another likely candidate. Israel got a pledge in 1992 for $10 billion in U.S. loan guarantees to help absorb Jewish immigrants. Rabin hasn't asked to use the money for relocating settlers, but a U.S. official in Jerusalem says Washington "would be willing to examine such a proposal if it was raised."

But where will the settlers go? Avi and Sarah Malul moved from Kiryat Arba to an affordable apartment in Pisgat Ze'ev—a Jewish neighborhood built after 1967 in occupied East Jerusalem. Negotiations over the fate of Jerusalem aren't due to start for another two years or more. Meantime, bulldozers are hard at work in Pisgat Ze'ev, a burgeoning neighborhood of 30,000 Jews, clearing land for even more low-cost apartments. Until a final peace settlement is reached, nobody knows for certain where they can make a home, and who will pay the price.

Rabin's Coalition: Where's the Beef?

THE MIDEAST PEACE PROCESS CLAIMED another casualty last week: nonkosher meat. Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, trying to pursue a controversial peace policy with only a minority coalition in the Knesset, needed to entice the ultraorthodox Shas bloc back into his ruling group. But Shas had a price for its support: legislation that would outlaw the import of nonkosher meat. (Most Israelis don't care about the meat itself; the issue is part of the always heated struggle over how secular Israel should be.)

Rabin wanted to reinforce his Labor-led coalition ahead of his visit this week to Washington. The new meat bill is expected to become law this week—despite opposition by some leftists who found it unpalatable. The Shas bloc will probably rejoin Rabin's government. That means the peace

Honorable William A. Rorer,
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter regarding the procedures governing the reporting and use of information concerning federal crimes. I have reviewed the draft of the procedures that accompanied your letter and, in particular, the minor changes made in the draft that I had previously sent to you. These proposed changes are acceptable and, therefore, I have signed the procedures.

I have been advised that a question arose regarding the need to add narcotic violations to the list of reportable non-employee crimes (Section IV). 21 U.S.C. §87c(h) provides that "[u]nless requested by the Attorney General, it shall be the duty of any agency or instrumentality of the Federal Government to furnish assistance to him for carrying out his functions under the Controlled Substances Act." Section 1.6(b) of Executive Order 12333 tasks the Central Intelligence Agency to "collect, produce and disseminate intelligence on foreign aspects of narcotics production and trafficking." Moreover, authorization for the dissemination of information concerning narcotic violations to law enforcement agencies, including the Department of Justice, is provided by sections 1.3(c) and 1.4 and 1.6(b) of the Order. In light of these provisions, and in view of the fine cooperation the Drug Enforcement Administration has received from CIA, no formal requirement regarding the reporting of narcotic violations has been included in these procedures. No look forward to the CIA's continuing cooperation with the Department of Justice in this area.

In view of our agreement regarding the procedures, I have instructed my Counsel for Intelligence Policy to circulate a copy which I have executed to each of the other agencies covered by the procedures in order that they may be signed by the head of each such agency.

Sincerely,

William French Smith

Re: Joseph Rom

Dear Prime Minister Sharon:

I anticipate if you review pertinent materials concerning the 1992 Peace Accord between Prime Minister Rabin and Yasser Arafat it can be determined that Ambassador Leo Wanta was orchestrating the funding of Ten Billion United States Dollars to facilitate implementation of economic contributions to the referenced Peace Accord.

It is further anticipated that a review of this matter would reflect that the funding never occurred. A bizarre range of circumstances resulted in failure to provide funding for the economic implementation portions of the mentioned Peace Accord. If Prime Minister Rabin records are available, in the archives of your Government, I believe you will find correspondence to Ambassador Leo Wanta from Prime Minister Rabin via Swiss authorities. This communication would have been in November of 1993. Within virtually days of this referenced correspondence Swiss authorities sent Ambassador Wanta back to America.

The reference to a "bizarre range of circumstances" concerns infringement on internationally recognized treaties, laws and human rights of Ambassador Wanta. Ambassador Wanta does not suggest that the injustice suffered by him over the past many years is directly attributable to his participation in the mentioned Peace Accord. On the other hand it is suggested that any indirect relationship either intentionally or indirectly associated with the Peace Accord funding failure should be of great interest to your countries leadership.

Speculation is the only measurement to use in evaluating if the present climate in your volatile political climate would have been different had the funding been available to implement the progressive economic plan that was an integral part of the Peace Accord. The economic resources are still available and there is reason to believe a progressive plan could be re-ignited if a need and desire to consider the same is still applicable.

The American political and justice system thwarts and casts aside any attempt to resolve and rectify the unlawful and unjust restrictions on the liberty and freedom of Ambassador Wanta. Facing continual set backs and stalled efforts Ambassador Wanta has requested his legal team to reach out to the international community in an attempt to bring attention to this matter.

After your due consideration is given to the intent and referenced subject of this letter it is respectfully asked that your consideration be given to what interest may still exist to implement the intended purpose of the Ten Billion Dollar infusion of United States Dollars in the 1992 Peace Accord. Assuming there is still an interest in such a plan then there may also be an interest in at least addressing and discussing the plight of Ambassador Wanta.

I expect that receipt of a letter of this nature by your Excellency may raise concerns and questions. An anticipated question is does this letter come from some strange person in the "West". Let me assure you that I am in daily contact with Ambassador Wanta and he has advised that review of the referenced dealings with Prime Minister Rabin and the subject reference for this letter "Joseph Rom" should instill further investigation and inquiry on your part.

Thank you in advance for your considerate attention and review of the intent of this letter. If additional information or questions are appropriate I will make every effort to cooperate and respond accordingly.

Dear Vice President Cheney, Attorney General Ashcroft and Senator Grassley:

My continual contact should come as no surprise. I respectfully direct your attention to the attached letter addressed to the FBI office in Eau Claire, Wisconsin. The attached letter is not my first contact with either the agent or the subject office. In fact I have had more than five communications making reference to the same issues and complaints.

Maybe I should not question lack of interest or follow up by the FBI as it is apparent from the fraudulently produced FBI report referenced in the attached letter that the same do not warrant attention implying the same to be common practice. Such hypocrisy for political convenience or should it be stated as political inconvenience. Mar Rich gets pardoned, Clinton illegally sells American military technology to the Chinese, Wanta assists the collapse of the Soviet economy creating a catalyst to the end of the "cold war" and Wanta goes to jail. Only in America is such shame rewarded with a "Cabinet" position. It can not be that difficult to find a amicable solution to an obvious miscarriage of justice.

Respectfully,

Dear Mr. Fitzgerald:

I am once again writing to inquire about the status of my complaints filed with your office over the past several months. I continually find it very interesting that an anonymous call (now known not to be anonymous) proven to be unwarranted and apparently misdirected results in immediate action by the FBI for search and detention of me and notice to Wisconsin authorities that resulted in Ambassador Wanta being taken into custody and my complaint asking for an investigation of the same appears to receive no response.

I also remind you that I have provided you with information and a complaint requesting an investigation into the accuracy and background for the authorship and publication of the FBI report on Wanta that I have forwarded to you. I presume if this information had come from an anonymous source with some "spy" type story hype the matter would receive some attention. Since the letter is from a simple United States citizen asking for assistance and protection under the laws of the United States I can only conclude from your misdirected lack of interest that my request has already been deposited in file "13". The truth of the matter to which I make mention will come out. It should be noted that evidence of a crime covered up or not investigated makes the participant also the subject of an ongoing conspiracy and criminal violations of the law.

I continually and respectfully request your considerate response advising if the issues and complaints I have brought to your attention have been given at least the same attention of energy expended to the anonymous tip. I also ask that you immediately advise of the status of the investigation in regard to my complaints.

Dear Mr. Fitzgerald:

I am once again writing to inquire about the status of my complaints filed with your office over the past several months. I find it very upsetting that I make a complaint regarding impropriety in the preparation of an FBI report on Wanta and provide information concerning an obvious negligent and malicious false report being filed against two American citizens and there is no response or even common courtesy recognition.

Is this apparent attitude of complacency something that American citizens must learn to live with? I hope not and would expect an even greater respect for the rights of our great nation's citizens in light of the serious issues facing our nation rather than a continuation of only taking on career advancement image investigations.

Your considerate response and report on the status of the complaints I have asked to be investigated would be most appreciated.

Dear Leo:

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter I received from The White House, regarding your desire to serve as Inspector General of the Department of Defense.

I want you to know that I also spoke personally by phone this week to Mr. Ed Rollins to convey to him your loyalty and support of the Reagan administration as you had outlined to my Administrative Assistant.

As soon as I have any further word regarding this position, I will be in touch. Please feel free to contact me if I can be of any other assistance to you in the future.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Grassley
