Wanta protests all the way to prison

■ "You were wrong,"
the tearful convicted tax cheat tells his prosecutor

By Cliff Miller
Post-Crescent Madison bureau

MADISON - Former Appleton businessman Leo E. Wanta was sentenced Monday to eight years in prison followed by six years of probation for filing false income tax returns and hiding taxable income in 1988 and 1989.

Dane County Circuit Judge Michael Torphy imposed the sentence nearly two years after Wanta was returned to this country from a Swiss jail to answer the state charges. Stammering and tearful, Wanta continued to protest his innocence. "I'm very stunned," he said.

"I know there's conspiracy and subterfuge here," he said in a rambling recount of his claims of having been an undercover federal agent in Asia and Europe who was exempt from state taxes.

"I just want to get out of here," he said, his voice breaking. "This is bogus." He tearfully thanked Torphy for freeing him on bond to live with his daughter and care for her twin sons who were born after he was arrested.

He told the judge that Department of Revenue Special Agent Dennis Ullman, Appleton, "continues to manipulate Doug Haag," the assistant attorney general who prosecuted him.

As sheriff's deputies prepared to remove Wanta from the courtroom, Haag shook his hand and wished him luck. Wanta answered, "You were wrong." Wearing handcuffs and a dark pinstripe suit, he was led off to jail.

Haag dismissed Wanta's stories as those of "a 55-year-old man who is a calculating, manipulative con man."

Haag asked the court to impose maximum sentences of 13 years in prison and nine years of probation. He also asked the court to require restitution of unpaid taxes and penalties totaling $671,819 plus court costs and public defender's costs.

The state said Wanta earned more than $166,000 in 1988 and $63,000 in 1989 but filed income tax

EAGLE ONE TO WANTA

Eagle One to Wanta Gibby Media Group, Inc is producing a feature documentary film entitled "Eagle One to Wanta". It is the compelling story about President Reagan, and how he brought about the fall of the Soviet Union and ended the Cold War without firing a shot. President Reagan and his secret agent, Ambassador Lee Emil Wanta, masterminded a creative way to financially take down the economy of the Soviet Union (Evil Empire) and put together and negotiated an agreement with Secretary General Mikhail Gorbachev. As a result the Russian Federation was born and future generations throughout the entire world have enjoyed more safety from a nuclear holocaust because of this effort. Working directly under President Reagan as a private citizen, there is a man named Ambassador Lee Wanta. Lee was mandated by President Reagan under the Totten Doctrine 192 U.S. 105, 107 (1875), National Security Decision - Directive Number 166, dated March 27, 1985, inter alia as a secret agent to be in charge of this effort. In this process Lee Wanta did amass trillions of dollars that were designated to go back to the American people by President Reagan. In his effort to carry out his mandate, Lee Wanta was imprisoned and the monetary funds that were his to distribute as planned were stolen or converted illegally by an organization known as the Federal Reserve System and used by them to this day.

Later in 2006 a US District Court Judge mandated and ordered that these converted funds be returned back to Lee with interest

It is interesting to note that Leo Emil Wanta was illegally detained on July 7, 1993 in Lausanne, Switzerland for failure to pay US $14,129.00 for a 1988/1989 State of Wisconsin tax assessment; ignoring the facts that the US $14,129.00 was paid-in-full and settled by Wisconsin Department of Revenue Agreement, June 24, 1992.

While waiting for illegal abduction - July 7 to 17 November 1993, Wanta received chemical castration in Suisse Prison with all other inmates, contrary to numerous International Laws, USA/Canada Laws, Vienna Convention, Wisconsin Statutes, inter alia.

Wanta returned to USA by illegal and forceful abduction; whereas, a U.S. District Court on 19 November 1993, issued a full dismissal with prejudice in relation to false allegations of State of Wisconsin in May, 1993 to U.S. Federal Magistrate to abduct Wanta via U/S. State Department, Wisconsin State Attorney General, Wisconsin Department of Revenue tax agents and Suisse authorities through subterfuge, conspiracy, perjury, inter alia.

C.A. No. 84-C-359

The matter under consideration began when Leo E. Wanta, designating himself as "stipulated petitioner for Falls Vending Service, Inc.," filed various motions challenging actions taken by the United States Bankruptcy Court for this district in a case entitled In Re: Falls Vending Service, Inc., Debtor (Case No. 83-02385). Wanta's motions are resisted by the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Menomonee Falls, a secured creditor in the bankruptcy action. Magistrate Robert L. Bittner, after a thorough examination of the matter, has recommended dismissing the action because Wanta lacks standing and also has failed to properly invoke this court's jurisdiction. I concur in the magistrate's analysis and adopt his recommendation in full.

In his written objections, Wanta contends that the magistrate's analysis of his standing is faulty because Falls Vending Service is not a legal and valid corporation, and therefore, cases holding that a corporation can only be represented by licensed counsel do not apply to this matter. Even if Falls Vending Service is not a corporation, Wanta lacks standing because his affidavit testimony indicates he is only an employee of the company. The owner of a company cannot confer standing on a non-lawyer employee by stipulation or otherwise.

Wanta's objections do not address his failure to properly invoke this court's jurisdiction. No complaint has been filed. Wanta failed to follow the proper procedures to perfect an appeal pursuant to Part 8, Rule 8001 et seq. of the United States Bankruptcy Rules. The matter must be dismissed sua sponte for lack of jurisdiction.

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED that the action is hereby dismissed.

PRAYERS TO ST. MICHAEL, ARCHANGEL

A Citizen's Prayer to St. Michael

Please protect us, St. Michael the Archangel, against violence, murder, and robbery. In your goodness preserve us today from all the malice of sinful and wicked people. In your sleepless vigilance watch over the safety and welfare of our homes and keep guard over our possessions. Ever hold in your special care, most triumphant St. Michael, the forces of public order against the crimes of evil people and defend all honest citizens in time of peril. Amen.

A Policeman's Prayer

Victorious St. Michael, you know how evil men are awake and plotting while good men sleep. Even so was faithless Judas awake and betraying our Lord while the Apostles slumbered in the Garden at Gethsemane.

Help me, powerful Archangel of God, to be always alert at my post, ever ready to do my duty, and to apprehend criminals without fear or favor. Be near me and my fellow police in times of peril and emergency, please. Defend us by your power when we are in danger. Be sure to shield us from all temptation and any occasion of sin. Help us

It is interesting to note that Leo Emil Wanta was illegally detained on July 7, 1993 in Lausanne, Switzerland for failure to pay US $14,129.00 for a 1988/1989 State of Wisconsin tax assessment; ignoring the facts that the US $14,129.00 was paid-in-full and settled by Wisconsin Department of Revenue Agreement, June 24, 1992.

While waiting for illegal abduction - July 7 to 17 November 1993, Wanta received chemical castration in Suisse Prison with all other inmates, contrary to numerous International Laws, USA/Canada Laws, Vienna Convention, Wisconsin Statutes, inter alia.

Wanta returned to USA by illegal and forceful abduction; whereas, a U.S. District Court on 19 November 1993, issued a full dismissal with prejudice in relation to false allegations of State of Wisconsin in May, 1993 to U.S. Federal Megistrate to abduct Wanta via U/S. Clean government? According to whom?

The proverbial wheels are coming off Wisconsin's reputation for "clean government."

■ Taxpayers already have been billed hundreds of thousands of dollars in legal fees by a group of lawmakers and staff members being investigated for possible involvement with running political campaigns on the public's dime, which is against the law.

At the same time, it is reported that legislative leaders are also being investigated amid allegations that they shook down lobbyists for campaign donations when the lobbyists sought lawmakers' help on certain bills.

■ The uproar continues in Editorial Milwaukee County over the outrageous pension plan deal that paid some retirees ridiculous lump sum payments and resulted in the resignation of the county administrator and calls to oust County Board members who approved the deal, although they say unwittingly.

The story got dirtier last week when felony charges were filed against Gary J. Dobbert, the so-called architect of the lump-sum payments. Investigators say

The issue: Dobbert, the human resources director, lied when he told the County Board that he had the proposal analyzed by an expert, as required by law, and when he

Several recent incidents cast doubt on state's reputation for clean government.

Our view:
It's time for public employees at all levels to lead the fight to restore that reputation.

told the County Board chairman that the deal would be a money-saver.

Dobbert was fired, but he stands to receive an annual pension of more than $60,000. However, under the deal he orchestrated, had he worked until 2008 he would have qualified for a lump sum payment of $826,000, or $350,000 if he worked until 2004, according to the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

There is hope that the pension deal can be rescinded if it can be proved that Dobbert lied to the County Board to get its approval. Any public employee who would accept such an outrageous payment would show their true colors as well.

■ State Rep. Johnnie Morris-Tatum, D-Milwaukee, struck a deal with the state Ethics Board last week in which she agreed to pay a $1,000 fine in addition to $1,800 she repaid the state last year for some $12,000 in personal phone calls billed to the taxpayers.

"It's frustrating, isn't it?" Ethics Board Executive Director Roth Judd told the Journal Sentinel. "The bill went to taxpayers a long time ago. This was as much as we were able to get back."

Morris-Tatum's phone tab included $6,000 in overseas calls, mainly to Senegal. She claimed the calls were for legitimate state business, but when asked by the Journal Sentinel for proof, she couldn't provide any.

We often hear how people in the public sector miss out on the perks private companies offer their workers.

Well, here's something else that happens in the private sector. If you're caught stealing from your employer, the best you can hope for is to get your dishonest butt fired. More likely, especially where thousands of dollars are involved, it's turned over to law enforcement, and you are prosecuted, which could mean probation or prison, and certainly full restitution.

The public must get involved to put the brakes on this disturbing trend, and so should the honest lawmakers and public employees, whose reputations likewise suffer every time one of their own gets caught lying, cheating and stealing from the taxpayers.

Dear Jim,

I just received word from the Dane County Jail that Leo was this morning transferred to Mendota State Mental Institute. I spoke with Wendy Hegge, the Patient Rights Facilitator at Mendota who told me that if the court order stated that Leo could be drugged, that the doctors could begin to administer the drugs immediately. I also just spoke with an inmate in another institution who told me that from his knowledge, it was likely that the doctors would immediately begin to administer Thorazine.

Leo has such a profound objection to drugs that I'm afraid he'll lose control when they start to inject him. Leo is well aware of what the drugs can do to his "memory bank".

I have contacted Professor Szasz' office in Syracuse and am waiting for him to return my call.

What action can we take that will most expeditiously stop the drugging? Greg has a draft of a motion to restrain the drugging.

I look forward to seeing you tomorrow in Madison. I am prepared to pay you your initial retainer fee.

It might be possible to visit Leo tomorrow evening after 6 P.M.. I will attempt to visit him and would welcome your coming with.

I'll phone you later either at the office or at home.

All the best,

Jerry

CASES / Appeals court: Prosecutor lied;

"It's with regret, as a former federal prosecutor, to say this, but I am beginning to wonder if there is a pattern of misconduct by prosecutors in that office," said John Fitzgibbons, a Tampa lawyer.

tice will be launching an investigation into Rubinstein in the more recent case.

"Following the policy of the department on matters involving allegations of prosecutorial misconduct, the U.S. attorney in Tampa has referred the matter to the department's Office of Professional Responsibility for appropriate review," said Chris Watney, a department spokeswoman.

This is the second time the 11th Circuit has thrown out a conviction because of misconduct by Rubinstein.

In 1994, the court overturned the convictions of Tom and Penny Crutchfield for illegally importing iguanas. The court criticized Rubinstein for "intentional misconduct," saying he had improperly attacked the character of the defendants and their witnesses.

even after the [trial judge] instructed the prosecutor as to their impropriety," the court wrote. "The prejudicial effect of this misconduct cannot be disputed."

In the more recent case, the court criticized Rubinstein not for his courtroom behavior but for what he did during the secret grand jury proceedings while seeking indictments against the shrimp company.

Sigma International Inc. and two of its executives were accused of selling millions of dollars worth of bad shrimp. After obtaining the indictment, Rubinstein took the case to trial, winning guilty verdicts against the company; its vice-president, William Andrew Walton; and the plant manager, Charles Sternisha.

All three appealed.

A three-judge panel of the appeals court issued a rare and scathing rebuke of Rubinstein on Nov. 30, 1999. It ruled that Rubinstein had lied to the grand jury, tried to rush its deliberations and made improper remarks to it about unrelated crimes.

convictions thrown out

Nevertheless, the appeals panel did not throw out the indictments.

But prosecutors, stung by the harsh criticism, came to Rubinstein's defense. They asked the appeals panel to reconsider, arguing that the initial ruling was incorrect and unfair. The defendants also asked for reconsideration.

The result was a second blow more stunning than the first.

Armed with new evidence, the same three-judge panel ruled that Rubinstein's misconduct was so bad the indictments should be thrown out.

"On a national level, this is almost unheard of," said Charles Wolfram, a legal ethics professor at Cornell University who is a leading expert in his field.

"The federal court of appeals is just sick to death of prosecutorial misconduct and not being able to do anything about it," Wolfram said. "This is a shot across the prosecution's bow."

The Sigma case may prompt defendants across the country to seek reviews of their grand jury proceedings. It is also a case that may end up before the U.S. Supreme Court, Wolfram said.

The U.S. attorney's office declined to comment on the ruling or say whether it will appeal. Rubinstein also declined to comment.

Whatever happens next, Tampa lawyer William Jung, who defended Sigma, said the company will continue to fight.

"We will continue to litigate this case," Jung said. "Hopefully someone in the U.S. attorney's office will give it a real stem-to-stern review ... and put this old shaggy dog of a case to rest."

If the case is resolved in Sigma's favor, the company will get a full refund of $1.4 million in fines it has paid as a result of its conviction. "The only question is whether it will be with interest," Jung said.

The two executives, Walton and Sternisha, have been free pending their appeals. Each had been sentenced to between one and two years in prison.

The U.S. attorney's office here was also stung by another ruling in 2000. The Florida Bar asked the state Supreme Court to suspend federal prosecutor Karen Cox for three years for allowing a witness to testify using a phony name during a 1998 trial in state court.

"It's with regret, as a former federal prosecutor, to say this, but I am beginning to wonder if there is a pattern of misconduct by prosecutors in that office," Fitzgibbons said. "The Justice Department is going to have put an end to this."
