Ambassador Leo Wanta is the lawful "principle" and "trustor" of funds stashed in accounts all over the world.

Editor's note: The story of how Ambassador Leo Wanta was commissioned by President Reagan to make Strillions for the American people in shrewd (but legal) currency trading that concentrated on buying Russian rubles at a discount to destabilize the Soviet economy surfaced in 1992. The Wanta story was recently revived on the Investigative Journal by Greg Szymanski through interviews with Ambassador Wanta broadcast on the Republic Broadcast Network. As it turns out, British financial news publisher Christopher Story has published the documents in evidence giving credence to what is arguably the most important story in recent memory. As you will see, several poorly-reported incidents during the 90s helped to bury the Wanta story as a tall-tale. As events unfold and independent researchers put the pieces together, Ambassador Wanta is emerging as a real man whose activities produced Strillions that are stashed away in real banks and invested in real properties. If this story is true—and the evidence is becoming unavoidably compelling—then it will not be long before all the world will know.

By Don Nicoloff

While many Americans argue about a variety of current scandals in federal, state, and local governments throughout the United States, the media has remained suspiciously silent about them. Contrary to the myriad of facts and evidence of government complicity or wrongdoing that independent investigators have been steadily uncovering in their analyses of the "attacks" on the World Trade Center; the "bombing" of the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City; the sieges at Waco and Ruby Ridge; the facts behind the shoot-out at the Rayburn Senate Office Building/parking garage in May, 2006; the virtual security collapse and mass invasion by illegal aliens along U.S. Borders; the spraying of our skies, crops, and water resources with chemtrails; the numerous bank, investment, securities frauds and sex scandals among members of the Congress, the Senate and the Roman Catholic Church; the secret formation of a "North American Union" and its NAFTA "Super Highway"; the ill-conceived "War on Terror" and the phony "War on Drugs," the mainstream media has been complicit in conspiracies of silence.

Ambassador Lee Warta. Lee was mandated by President Reagan under the Totten Doctrine 192 U.S. 105, 107 (1875), National Security Decision - Directive Number 166, dated March 27, 1985, inter alia as a secret agent to be in charge of this effort. In this process Lee Warta did amass trillions of dollars that were designated to go back to the American people by President Reagan. In his effort to carry out his mandate, Lee Warta was imprisoned and the monetary funds that were his to distribute as planned were stolen or converted illegally by an organization known as the Federal Reserve System and used by them to this day.

Later in 2006 a US District Court Judge mandated and ordered that these converted funds be returned back to Lee with interest accruals. It's hard to understand why, after eight years since this order was given by a US Judge, that these funds are still retained. When Lee Warta receives his funds back it will be in the amount of 32.8 trillion dollars. He promised under an oath to President Reagan that after he pays his repatriation taxes on this money he earned as director general in his Austrian based company, Lee has pledged to eliminate overnight our national debt (approximately 18 trillion), and our 1.8 trillion international trade deficit at once. He also will pay certain sovereign nations what they were promised in the Reagan-Mitterrand protocols. This includes the French, Chinese, English and Russian Governments, where billions were promised. With the remaining funds left over he plans to develop and create a high speed rail system for our country and develop new innovative businesses that could employ over 2 million people in the USA alone.

Office of the Attorney General

February 12, 1967

Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter regarding the procedures governing the reporting and use of information concerning federal crimes. I have reviewed the draft of the procedures that accompanied your letter and, in particular, the minor changes made in the draft that I had previously sent to you. These proposed changes are acceptable and, therefore, I have signed the procedures.

I have been advised that a question arose regarding the need to add narcotics violations to the list of reportable non-employee crimes (Section IV). 21 U.S.C. §876(h) provides that "[w]hen requested by the Attorney General, it shall be the duty of any agency or instrumentality of the Federal Government to furnish assistance to him for carrying out his functions under the Controlled Substances Act Section 1.81(b) of Executive Order 11333 tasks the Central Intelligence Agency to "collect, process and disseminate intelligence on foreign aspects of narcotics production and trafficking." Moreover, authorization for the dissemination of information concerning narcotics violations to law enforcement agencies, including the Department of Justice, is provided by sections 2.3(e) and (i) and 2.4(b) of the Order. In light of these provisions, and in view of the fine cooperation the Drug Enforcement Administration has received from CIA, no formal requirement regarding the reporting of narcotics violations has been included in these procedures. We look forward to the CIA's continuing cooperation with the Department of Justice in this area.

In view of our agreement regarding the procedures, I have instructed my Counsel for Intelligence Policy to circulate a copy which I have executed to each of the other agencies covered by the procedures in order that they may be signed by the head of each such agency.

Sincerely,

William French Smith
Attorney General

This is one interview you shouldn't miss!

Greg talked with former Ambassador Leo Wanta, a former U.S. Treasury official under President Ronald Reagan. Wanta spend 134 days in a Swiss dungeon and is still serving, under house arrest in Switzerland, 10 years of a 22 year sentence for bogus Wisconsin income tax charges.

Wanta tells how he saved President Reagan from an assassination attempt, as well as how he gave Vince Foster $250 million earmarked for The Childrens' Fund and its chairman Hillary Clinton right before Foster was found dead.

Wanta also holds the financial key to perhaps one of the biggest bank heists in U.S. history, amounting to $752 billion of money stolen by the Illuminati that should be in the U.S. Treasury. He also was appointed trustee of $27 trillion, made as U.S. profits during the days he helped orchestrate the destabilization of the Russian currency.

A recent federal court ruling held in favor of Wanta's trustee authority of the enormous amount of money, an appointment made by Reagan. Presently, he said the only thing keeping him alive is "I know where the money is and they don't," wanting to return it to the U.S. Treasury and the American people before the criminals in Washington, including Bush and Clinton, manipulate the money into private accounts using the fraudulent Federal Reserve system to their advantage.

Dear Mr. Wanta,

Thank you for your recent letter. Your message of support for the Declaration of Principles and the Agreement of Mutual Recognition, signed between Israel and the Palestinians is truly appreciated.

Israel has taken considerable risks upon itself in order to create an opportunity for peace and to put an end to violence and war. It is our wish to open a new chapter in the history of the Middle East - a chapter of mutual recognition, good neighborliness, mutual respect and understanding. We hope we have begun a new era in relations between peoples everywhere.

From Jerusalem, the eternal capital of Israel and the Jewish people, in the language of the Bible, we say, "Peace, peace to him who is afar and to him who is near".

World: Rubles

The Great Debate: Who Was Behind the Ruble Follies?

Summary: Rumors of billions of rubles available to be traded for Western currency swirled in the months before the Soviets seized 50 and 100 ruble notes. Moscow claimed the deals were part of a conspiracy to ruin its economy. Indeed, people were trying to trade rubles — or make a fast buck by claiming they were.

By Holman Jenkins Jr.

In a gigantic, worldwide conspiracy to sabotage a failing economy, a group of Western banks had been helping spirit billions of paper rubles out of the Soviet Union. Like Robin Hood in reverse, the world's rich and powerful were lining their pockets with the precious capital of the Soviet Union while their desperate country grew poorer and poorer. And the whole business was the secret work of "certain groups resembling the Colombian mafia" planning to overthrow President Mikhail Gorbachev.

No, this isn't the dust jacket copy of a bad suspense novel. This outlandish theory was revealed in February by none other than Valentin S. Pavlov, who simultaneously holds the title of prime minister and finance minister of the Soviet Union. It was instrumental in the decision by the Soviet government Jan. 27 to confiscate all 50 and 100 ruble bills — an act of hysteria even for a nation on the edge.

Even if the conspiracy theory seemed like low comedy, not every-

Was those babies good-bye: Soviets lined up to turn in 50 and 100 ruble bills.

RE: High Speed Rail, Ambassador Leo Wanta

Dear President Trump:

Please be advised that I, Jan M. Heger Esq., am former Counsel to Ambassador Lee Wanta for many years and am now retired. I have never in the history of practicing law for over 40 years met an individual who I admire, respect and trust more than Ambassador Wanta, who an officer of the United States as was appointed by President Reagan. He has honorably served the United States of America during our time of need and in my opinion should receive the Medal of Honor for his service during the cold war. Instead he has been abused by the legal system and/or the Deep State for doing his best and succeeded admirably to protect and defend the United States of America during the cold war, a specific secret task and treaty awarded to him by President Reagan in order to destabilize the Soviet Union. As you may be aware he has written a book which provides much of the proof and information you may need.

Trillions of US Dollars were made during this operation which were to be returned to the US to pay off the debts of United States less a percentage of earnings that were agreed to be paid to him personally. Instead he was unlawfully incarcerated and prosecuted here in the United States for crimes he never committed ie Tax Evasion by the State of Wisconsin most likely caused by the so called Deep State. I personally was in possession of two copies of cancelled checks made payable to the State of Wisconsin noting the payment of taxes which were cashed by the State of Wisconsin. As such, it was absolutely impossible for that tax crime to have been committed or to have occurred.

High Speed Rail

I believe you have heard of Heger Realty or JW Heger Company one of the largest Industrial Real Estate Companies in Southern California solely owned and operated by my father Jack W. Heger, now deceased. He was the President of the US Industrial Real Estate Association for many years and his clients included Southern Pacific Railroad and many Fortune 500 Companies. The high speed rail Ambassador Wanta is proposing would be a tremendous infrastructure project for the United States and would necessarily employ many US citizens. It is about time that this country have what other countries have ie a High Speed Rail. I cannot recommend more highly Ambassador Lee Wanta who is willing, once again, to serve the United States and to use his own hard earned funds in the process. Should you need further information, please do not hesitate contacting me at 949-295-2444 or by email at hegerlaw@outlook.com. Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Jan M. Heger Esq.

For Immediate Release

Ambassador Lee Wanta as a private citizen and Secret Agent under the Totten Doctrine (92 U.S. 105, 107) , was involved with President Reagan in developing a high speed rail plan for the USA. Lee Wanta's company New Republic Rail partnered with the Chinese authorities to develop ways to move this project forward. Upon his false arrest by order of the Corporate State of Wisconsin – Department of Revenue and after the tragic and mysterious death of his Chinese partner His Excellency Kok Howe Kwong (KOKSIN DYNASTY), the rail planned were put off and the money planned for the project was converted unlawfully. The project was hijacked by corrupt Politian's, Puppet Masters and financial organizations. The Chinese continues to work with New Republic Rail. The project is destined to move forward as Lee's monetary funds are released as ordered by a U.S. District Court Judge. The project during the construction phase will generate an estimated 2 million job opportunities and many more once operational. CONFIRMING

Washington, D.C. — Leo Wanta, whose purchase of huge sums in Russian rubles is credited with bringing down the Soviet Union in the Cold War, will be put through a third party lunacy test in Madison, Wisconsin circuit court on Tuesday. He has successfully been declared of sound mind in two previous lunacy tests under the Wisconsin state attorney general's office. His own attorney, James Shellow of Madison, Wis., is instituting this test. Shellow says that under the rules for attorneys in Wisconsin he has to notify the court that he thinks the lunacy test should be given. Shellow admits to being a former attorney for a deceased Mafia chief in Wisconsin named Belistiari. Shellow thinks Wanta will be declared sane in the upcoming hearing on Tuesday, but Shellow claims to know nothing as to how Wisconsin was able to extradite Wanta in chains and shackles from Switzerland, where he was doing business with Swiss banks after having given up his citizenship in Wisconsin. Wanta claims that he had just been made ambassador to Switzerland and Canada when Wisconsin state officials seized him bodily in Switzerland. Wanta claims that they took his briefcase from him at that time which contained billions in Treasury bills and Promise software technical equipment which the U.S. was using to get inside information about foreign treasuries.

Although the briefcase was taken by Wisconsin authorities in 1993, it has never been returned to Wanta nor has he any knowledge of what happened to its contents.

The charge is that he owed Wisconsin originally approximately $14,000. He claims to have paid back that amount in 1992. The state attorney general's office seized his house worth $120,000 and sold it for $60,000, but there is no record of this in the Department of Revenue in Wisconsin nor is there any trace of the proceeds from the sale.

Wanta was buying rubles from Russia at the request of the President, Ronald Reagan. Wanta had worked at the White House, the National Security Council, the Central Intelligence Agency and six other government agencies during his career.

He and President George Bush set up the Ameritrust account in the Credite Suisse bank for the U.S. government to use in case it needed to counter terrorists from overseas, according to Pat Cameron, Los Angeles attorney for Wanta. Wanta says that when former president George Bush sought to withdraw funds from the $210 billion on deposit that Wanta, a co-signer of the account, refused to give his signature for the withdrawal because the funds, he said, belonged to the U.S. government, not to an individual.

What Is the Truth About Leo Wanta?

Sunday, September 17, 2006 12:00 AM

– Thomas Szasz

Who is Ambassador Leo Wanta? If only half of what can be found about him (with little effort) is true, he should be a household name, investigated, interviewed, and "60-Minutes"-ized. Time and Newsweek would have dueling covers and Mike Wallace would be announcing his return. Most people have never heard of him, however, and the mainstream media are conspicuously avoiding him and what could be a huge story.

Wanta is a cacophony of questions.

As of my writing this, our national debt was $8,532,356,592,155.72. That's $8 trillion, 532 billion, 356 million, 592 thousand, 155 dollars and 72 cents. The national debt [http://www.brillig.com/debt_clock] has continued to grow an average of $1.70 billion PER DAY since September 2005.

So, where did all these trillions of dollars allegedly come from? No thanks to the either lazy or complicit mainstream media, search engines provide a lot of data worth either reporting or debunking ... but the silence is deafening.

I often note that "It is not a question of WHO is right or wrong but WHAT is right or wrong that counts." In researching the 'Wanta trillions', several of the most prolific sources are admittedly on the Internet 'fringe'. Many are gadflies and provocateurs.

However, there are also substantive, credible sources supporting the 'even a broken clock is right twice a day' axiom. Meanwhile the mainstream media (that spent months on the debunked Joe Wilson/Valerie Plame kerfuffle) haven't done 'Jack' about Wanta.

The International Currency Review's Christopher Story claims to have gotten the "ambassador of a major foreign power to deliver to every New York newspaper" his reports on the Wanta story.

[http://www.worldreports.org/news/25_wanta_default_trigge] Reportedly, the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal et al. have the information and have chosen to ignore it. Why?

The International Currency Review reports: "On the assumption that, as originally planned, the 'win-win', above-board, taxable transactions had started up with effect from 1st July 2006, and that the US Treasury would have earned around $200 billion of windfall taxes per banking day from that date forward, we calculate that the Treasury has so far deprived itself of on-the-books windfall taxes amounting to an estimated $10.6 trillion (= 53 banking days @ $200 billion tax receipts per banking day)."

If true, THAT would wipe out our national debt AND put us in the black.

Two major U.S. law firms reportedly helped negotiate the significant settlement that constitutes only a portion of the $27 trillion offshore fund
