Judge David Sentelle with judges Fay and Butzner ordered evidence of the cover-up submitted by Patrick Knowlton to be included as part of the final Report on Foster's death, over the objections of Kenneth Starr.

Judge John D. Butzner

"I suspect that if we deny [Knowlton's] motion we will be charged as conspirators in the cover-up."

Judge Peter T. Fay

"[Knowlton] contradicts specific factual matters and takes issue with the very basics of the report filed by [Kenneth Starr]."

The cover-up of the murder of Vincent Foster

Starr's motion was denied and the evidence was included in Starr's Report.

Judge Butzner wrote to his colleagues that if they did not order the evidence as part of the Report they could be "charged as conspirators in the cover-up."

Judge Peter Fay wrote that "the [evidence] contradicts specific factual matters and takes issue with the very basics of the Report filed by the [Independent Counsel]."

An internal Memo by the prosecutor in charge of the Foster death investigation stated that the crime scene had been staged by police who had placed a gun in Foster's hand, and then re-photographed the body. Read more about this memo by Miguel Rodriguez.

Deputy Independent Counsel Hickman Ewing informed Kenneth Starr that Lucla Rambush, member of the OIC staff, was unwilling to give her opinion about whether Foster was murdered, and whether the park police had staged the crime scene.

Associate Independent Counsel Brett Kavanaugh admitted that "all the police and medical personnel that were in the park also described [the car] as brown." Vincent Foster's car was NOT BROWN. Foster did not drive to the crime scene at Fort Marcy Park, contrary to press reports.

Associate Independent Counsel Miguel Rodriguez blew the whistle on the cover-up inside the Independent Counsel's Office.

Christopher Ruddy and Vince Foster

Christopher Ruddy captured the attention of conservative Republicans by casting suspicion on the Clintons about the death of Vincent Foster

Ex-Chief: Politics Kept FBI Off Foster Case

Christopher Ruddy cast suspicion on the Clintons by falsely stating the FBI was "kept off the Foster case."

Ruddy thinks Hillary Clinton would "make a great presidential candidate." - Wall Street Journal

Chris Ruddy on Clinton and Vince Foster

Some of the errors advanced by Christopher Ruddy's reporting that misdirected the public:

-The Clinton White House kept the FBI off the case.

"The White House takes control of the death investigation and engages in one of the most serious abuse of powers..."

-Foster's car was at Fort Marcy Park.

-Foster was left-handed.

-Park Police did not photograph Foster's body.

-There was a second body site.

-Foster's body was dumped in the park.

-Foster had a secret apartment.

-Vince Foster may have committed suicide.

...what disturbs me most about this administration is that they have engaged in a pattern of abuse of power ...
