Jim Fetzer

According to the latest, Special Counsel Robert Mueller has indicted 12 Russian military intel officers for hacking the DNC in an attempt to affect the outcome of the 2016 presidential election, citing the Guccifer 2.0 files as proof.

But back on 10 July 2017, William Craddick reported in Zero Hedge, "New Blockbuster Research Shows Guccifer 2.0 Files Were Copied Locally, Not Hacked", based upon the rapidity with which they had been downloaded and that it happened in the Eastern Time Zone.

New meta-analysis has emerged from a document published today by an independent researcher known as The Forensicator, which suggests that files eventually published by the Guccifer 2.0 persona were likely initially downloaded by a person with physical access to a computer possibly connected to the internal DNC network. The individual most likely used a USB drive to copy the information. The groundbreaking new analysis irrevocably destroys the Russian hacking narrative, and calls the actions of Crowdstrike and the DNC into question.

The document supplied to Disobedient Media via Adam Carter was authored by an individual known as The Forensicator. The full document referenced here has been published on their blog. Their analysis indicates the data was almost certainly not accessed initially by a remote hacker, much less one in Russia. If true, this analysis obliterates the Russian hacking narrative completely.

The Forensicator specifically discusses the data that was eventually published by Guccifer 2.0 under the title "NCP-VAN." This should not be confused with the separate publication of the DNC emails by Wikileaks. This article focuses solely on evidence stemming from the files published by Guccifer 2.0, which were previously discussed in depth by Adam Carter.

Months earlier, on 6 January 2017, Rachael Revesz, in the UK Independent, had reported, "Democratic National Committee 'did not allow' FBI to examine hacked servers before agency blamed Russia as culprit". So just how dumb are we supposed to be?

Donald Trump jumped upon the news. 'What is going on?'

Did the FBI ask to examine DNC website last month and did the DNC allow those requests? Or did it refuse? Or did it allow them to be hacked?

Even James Comey, on 10 January 2017, in The Hill, just a few days later, admitted, "Comey: DNC denied FBI's requests for access to hacked servers", the only explanation for which has to be that the DNC knew they would not find evidence of hacking.

The FBI requested direct access to the Democratic National Committee's (DNC) hacked computer servers but was denied, Director James Comey told lawmakers on Tuesday.

The DNC, the FBI and Mueller have the public in an uproar on the basis of claims of hacking by Russians that it cannot sustain. This goes far beyond a "witch hunt" and into the abyss of propaganda to promote a nefarious political agenda. We are being played for saps.

Dear

I received a copy of your telex to President Corazon Aquino from the Office of Maj Gen Jose Magno (ret), Presidential Military Adviser (received 5 May 87 by the Office of the President) concerning a complaint of "detention under false threat and false charges of a coup d'etat, among other things."

If you could send me the details of the incident, including witnesses if any, we might be able to cause a formal investigation to be conducted. Kindly include specific information (what, where, when, who).

There is also considerable interest to find out how you helped in reducing urea fertilizer pricing and military arms and equipment costs, with the view of determining how to continue this apparent laudable process.

May I hear from you soon?

Best wishes and warm regards from Washington.

Stuck in the Promised Land

Israel: With unrest rising, many settlers want out

NOT EVERYONE IN THE militant Jewish settlement of Kiryat Arba thinks it's the promised land. "We went because of the money; it was cheap to get an apartment there," says Sarah Malul, who moved to Kiryat Arba 10 years ago. Malul and her husband, Avi, raising four children in a fearful place surrounded by enraged Palestinians, often thought of moving to Jerusalem. But they couldn't afford to. Then Baruch Goldstein, a Kiryat Arba resident, gunned down 29 Muslim worshipers in nearby Hebron, and everything changed. "My 8-year-old said to me, 'I'm afraid the Arabs will kill me now,'" recalls Sarah. The Maluls demanded government help—and with a $275 monthly subsidy, they were able to rent a tiny apartment in Jerusalem. "I feel like a prisoner who has been freed," says Sarah.

Thousands of Jews living in other settlements deep in the Israeli-occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip want to get out, too, but it's not so easy. They were lured there by government offers of huge mortgages at rock-bottom rates, at a time when Israel's leaders wanted Jews to populate Arab lands captured in 1967. The settlers bought homes they could never afford in Israel proper. Set now that Israel is preparing to trade land for peace, the same houses have plunged in value. "Many families want to leave," says Malul, who can't find a buyer for her apartment in Kiryat Arba. "But they don't take the money to make that choice."

The trick is to survive Palestinian stones, bullets and bombs until the government of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin offers compensation, then take the money and go. Settlers recall the precedent set at Yamit, the Sinai settlement returned to Egypt as part of the 1979 peace treaty. Then the government paid $400,000 for each evacuated firm, and $75,000 to $150,000 for other households that pulled up stakes. So far, however, Rabin has resisted pressure to offer a deal to the settlers in the West Bank and Gaza. "He doesn't want them to leave now because he's still negotiating," says Hagai Meir, one of two Labor Party legislators running a hot line for settlers who want out. "Rabin says to himself: 'If they move now, the

Climate of fear: Israeli soldier clubs a Palestinian protester

Palestinians will think we are weak."

That approach has left many settlers feeling like pawns in an increasingly dangerous game. Just last week the Islamic militant group Hamas issued a warning to Jews living in certain West Bank and Gaza settlements: leave by March 15 or face increased attacks. The threat is not empty bluster. In February Hamas gunmen shot dead a pregnant woman who was traveling between Tel Aviv and the suburban-style settlement of Ariel. More recently, nervous Israeli soldiers killed an Ariel resident who was driving at night—they thought the settler was a Palestinian terrorist.

So far the government is providing only minimal assistance to help relocate low-income families desperate to get out. Estimates for the cost of fully compensating most of the 125,000 settlers range up to $10 billion. "Somebody will have to pay for it," says Meir, who suggests that Saudi Arabia could help if settlements were used to house Palestinians in the future. Washington is another likely candidate. Israel got a pledge in 1992 for $10 billion in U.S. loan guarantees to help absorb Jewish immigrants. Rabin hasn't asked to use the money for relocating settlers, but a U.S. official in Jerusalem says Washington "would be willing to examine such a proposal if it was raised."

But where will the settlers go? Avi and Sarah Malul moved from Kiryat Arba to an affordable apartment in Pigeat Ze'ev—a Jewish neighborhood built after 1967 in occupied East Jerusalem. Negotiations over the fate of Jerusalem aren't due to start for another two years or more. Meantime, bulldozers are hard at work in Pigeat

Ze'ev, a burgeoning neighborhood of 30,000 Jews, clearing land for even more low-cost apartments. Until a final peace settlement is reached, nobody knows for certain where they can make a home, and who will pay the price.

JEREMY BARTHOLOMEW for the West Bank

Rabin's Coalition: Where's the Beef?

THE MIDEAST PEACE PROCESS CLAIMED another casualty last week: nonkosher meat. Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, trying to pursue a controversial peace policy with only a minority coalition in the Knesset, needed to entice the ultraorthodox Shas bloc back into his ruling group. But Shas had a price for its support: legislation that would outlaw the import of nonkosher meat. (Most Israelis don't care about the meat itself; the issue is part of the always heated struggle over how secular Israel should be.)

Rabin wanted to reinforce his Labor-led coalition ahead of his visit this week to Washington. The new meat bill is expected to become law this week—despite opposition by some leftists who found it unpalatable. The Shas bloc will probably regain Rabin's government. That means the peace process, at least, may stay on the menu.

THE TOTTEN DOCTRINE [92 U.S. 105, 107 (1875)] Rogers-Hou

Office of the Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

February 11, 1967

Honorable William L. Shaw,
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter regarding the procedures governing the reporting and use of information concerning federal crimes. I have reviewed the draft of the procedures and, in particular, the minor changes made in the draft that I had previously sent to you. These proposed changes are acceptable and, therefore, I have signed the procedures.

I have been advised that a question arose regarding the need to add narcotic violations to the list of reportable non-employee crimes (Section IV). 21 U.S.C. 843(a) provides that "(w)hen requested by the Attorney General, it shall be the duty of any agency or instrumentality of the Federal Government to furnish information to him for carrying out his functions under the Controlled Substances Act . . .". Section 1.4(b) of Executive Order 11811 tasks the Central Intelligence Agency to "collect, process and disseminate intelligence on foreign aspects of narcotic production and trafficking." Moreover, authorization for the dissemination of information concerning narcotic violations to law enforcement agencies, including the Department of Justice, is provided by sections 1.3(a) and (b) and 1.6(b) of the Order. In light of these provisions, and in view of the close cooperation the Drug Enforcement Administration has received from CIA, no formal requirement regarding the reporting of narcotic violations has been included in these procedures. We look forward to the CIA's continuing cooperation with the Department of Justice in this area.

In view of our agreement regarding the procedures, I have instructed my Counsel for Intelligence Policy to circulate a copy which I have executed to each of the other agencies covered by the procedures in order that they may be signed by the head of each such agency.

Sincerely,

William French Smith
Attorney General

Dear Ken,

Thank you very much for your help in trying to locate Mr. Haile and Mr. Mousse so that Mr. Wanta can properly dispose of the gold he now holds in trust for the Somali people.

Following are copies of some documents related to Mr. Wanta's appointment as ambassador of the Somali Democratic Republic. It is my understanding that Mr. Wanta also was appointed head of the Central Bank that was to be built - and it was in that capacity that Mr. Wanta holds the gold.

If you can continue to help us, this would be greatly appreciated.

Again our sincerest thanks.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 02-1363-A

MEMORANDUM OPINION

THIS MATTER is before the Court on Defendants the United States of America, et al.'s, motion to dismiss Plaintiff Ambassador Leo Wanta's claim of breach of contract based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction and on Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint. The issue before the Court is whether the Court should dismiss an alleged secret government agent's claim against the Attorney General, the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Government based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Court grants Defendants' motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1) because the Government has not waived sovereign immunity and public policy forbids the adjudication of a suit relating to matters of an alleged national security contract. The Court denies Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a) because such an action would be futile.

Ambassador Lee E. Wanta Biography Is now available in Paperback

January 19th 2016

For Immediate Release

A private citizen investor referred to in a December Senate and House bill as one who will help reduce the national debt is a man known as Ambassador Lee E. Wanta. The 2015 released biography of Ambassador Lee E. Wanta explains this matter completely. It is available now to the public on Amazon, Barnes & Noble and Apple iBook's and in paperback which comes with an attached digital interactive disc with all the backup documents. This is the only authorized biography of the Personal Intelligence Coordinator and Secret Agent who was mandated under President Ronald Wilson Reagan. The 350 page biography is backed up with hundreds of accessible documents to provide evidence and verification of the biography of Lee Wanta's life. The content released in this biography is sensitive, controversial and timely. Much of it has never before been shared with the American public. The subject matter it addresses has its historical foundation in Lee Wanta's secret work under President Reagan to de-stabilize the Soviet Union, financially ending the Cold War without firing a single shot. This was accomplished with the help of Lee Wanta a private citizen operating under the Totten Doctrine 92 U.S.105,107, all explained in detail in the biography. The biography reveals how Lee Wanta privately amassed trillions of USDollars in personal monetary funds. It clearly explains his Presidential Mandate where his personal funds will be lawfully disbursed including the Reagan-Mitterrand Protocol. The repatriation of his personal funds and the resulting personal income taxes being paid will enable our nation to continue funding and reducing its debt. The Senate and the house approved this debt reduction plan late last year. Lee Wanta is also in the process of assisting the Hellenic Republic of Greece with a reliable financial assistance program to help them with their National debt obligations.

The biography provides in-depth information about how the lawless and non-governmental Federal Reserve System and the Corporation State of Wisconsin seized his personal funds (Alford Plea June 10th 1994 Exhibit K see below), through criminal and corrupt activities operated by a sophisticated system of Puppet Masters. It shows how articles published by well-known Wall Street Journal Editorial Board member Holman W. Jenkins were inaccurate regarding Lee Wanta, who at the time was serving as a Sheriff's Department "deep cover investigator" of Falls Vending Services, Inc. a Wisconsin corporation owned and operated by Jerome Engle, also AKA Jerry S. Engel, who was linked in with the assassination of JFK and Bobby Kennedy under an operation secretly called Elm Street. Also the biography addresses the false accusations written about Lee in the book "Thieves World" influenced by Assistant FBI Director Jim Moody published by Simon and Schuster, New York.

File: C:\Documents%20and%20Settings\Admin\My%20Documents\TAX %20and%20Loc%20E.%20Wanta%20Biography%20Making%20American%20%20 7/10

Lee Wanta's biography contains new never-released Intel information regarding White House Deputy Counsel Vince Foster and Hillary Clinton receiving 250 million USDollars from Lee Wanta in favor of the Children's Defense Fund which has never been accounted for. The same day these funds were transferred Lee Wanta was put in a Swiss/Suisse Prison and shortly after White House Deputy Counsel Vince Foster mysteriously died. This biography asks hard questions that need to be addressed by many well-known politicians, business and banking officials. It explains how the Corporate State of Wisconsin operates well outside the U.S. Constitution and how they continue to operate this way under the administration of Governor Scott Walker as a Corporation and not a State. It exposes current activities in the Ukraine and corrupt destabilization efforts happening throughout our Sovereign Nation and throughout the world and who is behind it. It also helps the public understand how the "Puppet Masters" are controlling ISIS / DAESH/ ISOL. (Why we do have three confusing names for the same group?)

Learn how The United States Congress has censored and suppressed vital information that should have been disclosed under Title 18, Section 4 and Section 201 and how some elected officials have been using bribery and extortion to obtain Lee's funds. Because of the sensitive nature of the content and some of the new information regarding Presidential candidates from both parties, it could have possible implications on the upcoming Presidential election.

The biography helps dispel any doubts as to who Lee Wanta really is, about the $31.2 trillion he controls now, and what his goals and Mandate is from President Reagan too help our country rid itself of continuing political corruption and return us back to a strong financial footing again as a world leader. The author of the biography is Lee Wanta himself, and has been edited by Lon Gibby, and published by Viking International, LLC. To follow-up the biography, a feature film documentary entitled Eagle One to Wanta is in full production by Gibby Media Group, Inc. to be completed and released in 2016 in time well before the U.S Presidential election.
www.eagleonetowanta.com.

Ambassador Lee E. Wanta's timely biography helps clear up some of this confusion and restores hope that we can get our nation back in line with our Constitution, We the People and by the People. Negotiations are in progress to distribute the paperback version through a major publishing company worldwide.
