Part 14 of

The Foreign Minister
Government of Canada,
Ottawa,
Canada.

Dear Mr. Foreign Minister,

On behalf of His Excellency Haji Mohamed Hashi Haile, president of Somalia, I would like to extend my greetings to your Excellency and the people of Canada.

We are very appreciative of your noble stance to have given sanctuary to thousands of innocent Somalis who have fled the civil war and before that the corrupt regime of former dictator Mohamed Siyad Barre.

Since there has not been a representative for our national affairs in your country, I am instructed by His Excellency Haji Mohamed Hashi, The president of the state of Somalia, to inform your excellency that Sir Leo X. Wanta would become the official representative of our state affairs in Canada, starting from the 2nd of April 1993.

I am sure that Sir Wanta would build better relations between our two countries and would also look after the well-being of our citizens in your country.

Yours sincerely

A. M. Nussu

Somalia's New War Order

For the first time, members of Danab and the CIA-trained Somali intelligence unit known as "Alpha Group," who agreed to be interviewed on the condition they were not identified, gave detailed accounts of the extent to which the Americans are now involved in training forces in a country from which they fled two decades ago.

"Americans are completely different from the Somalis," said the recently graduated Danab member. "They study you psychologically. Also, if you tell them you have a goal in mind, they really try to help you reach that goal. Even when we graduated, they gave us a bonus, which was not on the books."

The Pentagon confirmed to the Toronto Star that there are five U.S. members of a "military co-ordination cell" that was deployed in October 2013.

"(T)he Defense Department maintains a small presence in Somalia primarily to co-ordinate U.S. efforts to counter the threat from Al Qaeda and Al Shabab with related efforts of the international community," U.S. army Lt. Col. Myles B. Caggins III, wrote in an email to the Star.

Caggins said the State Department "co-ordinates" with the U.S.-funded civilian contractors in the country and acknowledged Danab's existence when questioned about the new unit.

"The Danab company receives training on law of armed conflict and international humanitarian law, consistent with international standards," Caggins wrote.

But along with training, Danab and the Alpha Group, which is known locally as "Gashan," meaning "the Shield," the U.S. also gets an important partnership with both Somalia's army and intelligence wing.

For critics of the program this is seen as an incursion on Somalia's sovereignty — establishing a two-tier system for the military and security groups. Others praise the co-operation and standards set by foreign forces.

There's no doubt, the so-called Black Hawk Down era, where Western powers abandoned the war torn East African country following the 1993 deaths of 18 U.S. service members and downing of two Black Hawk helicopters, is long gone.

A city within a city has grown in the last four years inside Mogadishu's protected Oceanside airport compound. Civilian U.S. contractor Bancroft, which was the first to set up base here, is now flanked by compounds for the United Nations, British embassy and European Union advisers.

The Central Intelligence Agency also has a quiet presence here. For the last few years, they have trained and equipped the Alpha Group, the intelligence unit commandos who live in their own fortified compound near the airport.

Mohamud Abdulle, the chief of staff for Somalia's former prime minister, said in an interview last year that the Alpha Group had become a "fundamental part of Somalia's security and intelligence architecture" and report to the country's intelligence force, known as the National Intelligence and Security Agency.

"Its responsibilities include special operations, securing areas and protecting VIPs," Abdulle said. "In the short time since it was created, Alpha Group has been strikingly successful."

One intelligence official in Mogadishu with knowledge of the team said there are no more than 150 members, but estimates vary. Some of the members reportedly defected from the Shabab, but the team's membership is a closely-guarded secret — fighters only appear in public with their faces covered by tan-coloured balaclavas and often with sunglasses and gloves.

Alpha Group also conducts what are known as "snatch and grab" operations — targeting terrorism suspects and interrogating them within the confines of the airport compound.

World: Rubles

The Great Debate: Who Was Behind the Ruble Follies?

Kiss those babies good-bye: Soviets lined up to turn in 50 and 100 ruble bills.

Summary: Rumors of billions of rubles available to be traded for Western currency swirled in the months before the Soviets seized 50 and 100 ruble notes. Moscow claimed the deals were part of a conspiracy to ruin its economy. Indeed, people were trying to trade rubles — or make a fast buck by claiming they were.

By Holman Jenkins Jr.

In a gigantic, worldwide conspiracy to sabotage a failing economy, a group of Western banks had been helping spirit billions of paper rubles out of the Soviet Union. Like Robin Hood in reverse, the world's rich and powerful were lining their pockets with the precious capital of the Soviet Union while that desperate country grew poorer and poorer. And the whole business was the secret work of "certain groups resembling the Colombian mafia" planning to overthrow President Mikhail Gorbachev.

No, this isn't the dust jacket copy of a bad suspense novel. This outlandish theory was revealed in February by none other than Valentin S. Pavlov, who simultaneously holds the title of prime minister and finance minister of the Soviet Union. It was instrumental in the decision by the Soviet government Jan. 22 to confiscate all 50 and 100 ruble bills — an act of hysteria even for a nation on the edge.

Even if the conspiracy theory seemed like low comedy, not every-

Ambassador Wanta is a true American patriot with impeccably high moral standards. This biography gives us a true representation of his spirit and his unwavering commitment to bring honor, respect and integrity to all. His life's work under Reagan is historic in nature and will be recognized by the citizens of the United States as the moment in time when we regained our Constitutional Freedoms. I eagerly await the conclusion and call on all US patriots to follow his lead toward a brighter future for all.

Lee Wanta's story must be heard . This is a story of a true patriot, that has sacrificed willingly for his country, and for all of us. His solution, and contribution to stopping us from declining further, and entering a possible war, can be achieved if Americans care enough to get it out there. The corruption that Ronald Reagan and Lee tried to work around, under the Totten doctrine is genius. Do not let the present puppet masters bury his story and the funds to free America any longer. Get on it Americans ! Start sending the letters to these politician and that continue to be bullied into selling our country out ! We soon will be carved up like a turkey if Americans do not start to take action .

It's not very well-written, but it's on a topic that the mainstream is not touching. They don't touch a lot of topics, actually. Is this guy for real? May be hard to say, but he's got a lot of documentation, and it's included in here.

Washington, D.C. --- Leo Wanta, whose purchase of huge sums in Russian rubles is credited with bringing down the Soviet Union in the Cold War, will be put through a third party lunacy test in Madison, Wisconsin circuit court on Tuesday. He has successfully been declared of sound mind in two previous lunacy tests under the Wisconsin state attorney general's office. His own attorney, James Shellow of Madison, Wis., is instituting this test. Shellow says that under the rules for attorneys in Wisconsin he has to notify the court that he thinks the lunacy test should be given. Shellow admits to being a former attorney for a deceased Mafia chief in Wisconsin named Belistiari. Shellow thinks Wanta will be declared sane in the upcoming hearing on Tuesday, but Shellow claims to know nothing as to how Wisconsin was able to extradite Wanta in chains and shackles from Switzerland, where he was doing business with Swiss banks after having given up his citizenship in Wisconsin. Wanta claims that he had just been made ambassador to Switzerland and Canada when Wisconsin state officials seized him bodily in Switzerland. Wanta claims that they took his briefcase from him at that time which contained billions in Treasury bills and Promise software technical equipment which the U.S. was using to get inside information about foreign treasuries.

Although the briefcase was taken by Wisconsin authorities in 1993, it has never been returned to Wanta nor has he any knowledge of what happened to its contents.

The charge is that he owed Wisconsin originally approximately $14,000. He claims to have paid back that amount in 1992. The state attorney general's office seized his house worth $120,000 and sold it for $60,000, but there is no record of this in the Department of Revenue in Wisconsin nor is there any trace of the proceeds from the sale.

Wanta was buying rubles from Russia at the request of the President, Ronald Reagan. Wanta had worked at the White House, the National Security Council, the Central Intelligence Agency and six other government agencies during his career.

He and President George Bush set up the Ameritrust account in the Credite Suisse bank for the U.S. government to use in case it needed to counter terrorists from overseas, according to Pat Cameron, Los Angeles attorney for Wanta. Wanta says that when former president George Bush sought to withdraw funds from the $210 billion on deposit that Wanta, a co-signer of the account, refused to give his signature for the withdrawal because the funds, he said, belonged to the U.S. government, not to an individual.

RE: High Speed Rail, Ambassador Leo Wanta

Dear President Trump:

Please be advised that I, Jan M. Heger Esq., am former Counsel to Ambassador Lee Wanta for many years and am now retired. I have never in the history of practicing law for over 40 years met an individual who I admire, respect and trust more than Ambassador Wanta, who an officer of the United States as was appointed by President Reagan. He has honorably served the United States of America during our time of need and in my opinion should receive the Medal of Honor for his service during the cold war. Instead he has been abused by the legal system and/or the Deep State for doing his best and succeeded admirably to protect and defend the United States of America during the cold war, a specific secret task and treaty awarded to him by President Reagan in order to destabilize the Soviet Union. As you may be aware he has written a book which provides much of the proof and information you may need.

Trillions of US Dollars were made during this operation which were to be returned to the US to pay off the debts of United States less a percentage of earnings that were agreed to be paid to him personally. Instead he was unlawfully incarcerated and prosecuted here in the United States for crimes he never committed ie Tax Evasion by the State of Wisconsin most likely caused by the so called Deep State. I personally was in possession of two copies of cancelled checks made payable to the State of Wisconsin noting the payment of taxes which were cashed by the State of Wisconsin. As such, it was absolutely impossible for that tax crime to have been committed or to have occurred.

High Speed Rail

I believe you have heard of Heger Realty or JW Heger Company one of the largest Industrial Real Estate Companies in Southern California solely owned and operated by my father Jack W. Heger, now deceased. He was the President of the US Industrial Real Estate Association for many years and his clients included Southern Pacific Railroad and many Fortune 500 Companies. The high speed rail Ambassador Wanta is proposing would be a tremendous infrastructure project for the United States and would necessarily employ many US citizens. It is about time that this country have what other countries have ie a High Speed Rail. I cannot recommend more highly Ambassador Lee Wanta who is willing, once again, to serve the United States and to use his own hard earned funds in the process. Should you need further information, please do not hesitate contacting me at 949-295-2444 or by email at Hegerlaw@outlook.com. Thank you for your kind attention to this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Jan M. Heger Esq.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

FATE: “When the power and arrogance of government combine with the power and arrogance of multi-national corporations, the fate that results is dominated by tyranny and corruption.”

... Marilyn MacGruder Barnewall

THIS?

OR THIS?

In 1995, the initial proposal for high-speed rail was made by Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta to the federal government. As can be seen in a letter to President William Jefferson Clinton, Vice president Albert Gore, Jr., and Secretary of the Treasury Robert Rubin, Ambassador Wanta was still awaiting positive action from the government four years later, on April 2, 1999.

the globe. Escaping death was not merely a necessity but a way of life. Ambassador Wanta worked as a Secret Agent under President Ronald Reagan, striving to keep his country safe by participating in sting operations and earning capital through his corporations. President Reagan mandated under Totten Doctrine (92 U.S. 105, 107) the Ambassador to carry out his plan to end the Cold War and bring about the creation of the Russian Federation with the agreement of Secretary General Mikhail Gorbachev. Ambassador Wanta assisted with the Principality of Snake Hill, tracked down criminals such as Frank Balistreri, negotiated with Heads of State and provided many services for his country. But this patriotic man was crushed by fraudulent court orders, detained in Switzerland, and robbed of his personal finances. In this biography documenting his life's experiences, readers learn how Ambassador Wanta's $31.2 trillion were swept out from under his feet. The crime of circumstance lies in the fact that his private earnings were converted from him, leaving the man in poverty. Shady circumstances cloud the deaths of some of his closest associates. The Ambassador has faced everything from being stonewalled by the media to receiving death threats. In Wanta! Black Swan, White Hat, readers learn just what it means to be a Secret Agent and about the persecution associated with big money. In contrast with Ambassador Wanta's goals to use his private fortune to help eliminate the U.S. National Debt obligations and develop a High Speed Rail system, his enemies' goals for the money are purely selfish. With hundreds of pages and an extensive number of documents, letters and photos, this biography aims to prove to the American Public the truth about this oppressed man. Ambassador Wanta hopes to enlighten readers as to the true nature of various politicians, Puppet Masters and corporate government institutions through his extensive experiences and personal history.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

"The method determines the standard..."

Ambassador Lee Emil Wanta

It is difficult to write of an ending when there really is no ending. Yet, that is what this chapter is: An ending to WANTA! Black Swan, White Hat. It is also a beginning relative to the life and times of Leo/Lee Emil Wanta and the American economy and what is yet to come.

Remember Nassim Nicholas Taleb's definition in his book, The Black Swan: In the world of finance (and probably other worlds, as well) it is a metaphor that describes an event that surprises the observer and has a major effect. After the event, a Black Swan is inappropriately rationalized with the benefit of hindsight.

One objective of WANTA! Black Swan, White Hat has been to provide the international public and particularly the American populace with information about how President Reagan and his secret Presidential Task Force brought down the Soviet Union Ruble (SUR) utilizing the skill and knowledge of the man Reagan called his "favorite junkyard dog," Leo Emil Wanta.

A LIFETIME OF COUNTER-INTELLIGENCE SERVICE TO THE UNITED STATES

In the course of his professional intelligence service, Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta conducted sensitive counter-intelligence business and operations in the following countries and territories, among others: Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Belize, Brazil, Burma, Chad, Chile, China, Cuba, Egypt, El Salvador, France, Honduras, Hong Kong, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Ireland, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, Mongolia, Morocco, Mozambique, Nicaragua, North Africa, Amman, Pakistan, Panama, Paraguay, Philippines, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, South Africa, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Sudan, Thailand, United Kingdom, Vanuatu (the currently favored, utterly corrupted financial offshore tax haven bolt-hole of the Illuminati), Venezuela and Zaire. In many operations, transactions patterns are established in order to monitor the resulting financial flows, which can be done using inter alia PROMIS-derivative software.

President Reagan referred to Leo Wanta as his favorite 'junkyard dog' because of his ability to get things done by 'unconventional' means. However, what is apparent from studying what is known about Leo Wanta's life is that he may not have realized that although he served successive Presidents with total loyalty, in many instances they were working to a different underlying agenda to what they told him.
