AFFIDAVIT

I Giovanni Ferro of the City of Toronto (Ontario-Canada) do swear and affirm that, if I were to testify in a Court of law I would testify that:

I was present at the investiture of Leo Emil Wanta as Ambassador of Somalia to Switzerland. The ceremony was presided over by the President of Somalia Haji Mohamed Hashi Haji and the investiture took place in Paris (France) at the Hotel Pulman on the month of June 1993.

I was also with Ambassador Wanta in Switzerland, where he was going to take his post, when he was arrested. I was also arrested with Ambassador Wanta, at the same time, but soon after released.

Signing Arrangements — Notes for Customers

To operate your account safely and securely we need specimen signatures of anyone who is to sign cheques and authorise other transactions.

When the account is the business account of a sole trader, the completion of the signature card below may be all that we need.

Where there are a number of signatories to the account, eg, an account for a partnership, limited company, or a club or society, you will be asked to complete a form of mandate. This is a written instruction to the Bank which tells us who is to sign and in what circumstances. Some important conditions which apply to accounts are also contained in the mandate and by signing the form you are giving your agreement to these.

You will be provided with the relevant form for completion and although it may look rather complex, its purpose is quite straightforward. If there are any points you are unsure of, please feel free to ask.

If, in the future, you wish to change the signing arrangements for any reason, please advise us and we can arrange for a new mandate to be completed.

NB If all those who are to sign the account are not present, this sheet may be taken away for completion.

When you stonewalled in the second telephone call above, I again pointed out that this matter is broader than the issue of a purported individual taxpayer's spurious tax affairs, as it impinges upon the ethical and possibly criminal behaviour of your Department. The facts are the facts, and they are fully documented, with the necessary copies held in multiple locations. I closed by stating that, given your Department's obvious stonewalling and failure to assist my enquiries, there are many ways to skin a cat, meaning that other avenues, I understand, will therefore be followed in order to bring this matter to the appropriate outcome.

Should you and your colleagues decide, in the light of the above and on further consideration, that it would be helpful for your reiterated and specific undertaking to me that Mr Roger Ervin will telephone me, to be fulfilled, I will of course be very pleased to take his call on 1-800 661 4809.

WISC. STATE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY BRIEFING

12-15-93

Failure to pay taxes is charge

Leo Wanta is a man of international intrigue, no matter whose story you believe.

Depending on who is doing the talking, Wanta is either a CIA and U.S. customs agent, or he is a crook who has defrauded business people throughout the world.

Wanta, 53, was charged Tuesday in Dane County Circuit Court with failing to pay more than $200,000 in state income taxes from 1986 to 1989. He claimed diplomatic immunity from prosecution.

Assistant Attorney General Judith Schultz said the state has been attempting to get Wanta into court voluntarily since early 1992.

Meanwhile, Schultz said, Wanta has been arrested for fraud in Singapore; Bangkok, Thailand; and in Geneva, where he told Swiss officials he was a Somalian ambassador and was a friend of Al Gore.

Wanta was deported from Switzerland last month and arrested upon his return to the United States.

In a sometimes rambling speech in court, Wanta called the charges a "sham and a fraud" and insisted he had never been arrested for the crimes Schultz claimed. He said he is a legitimate businessman who lives in Vienna, Austria, and owns a corporate home in Appleton. He originally gave jail officials a Toronto address.

He was held in the Dane County Jail on $90,000 cash bail.

Good morning Greg! Here's hoping that all is going well with you.

Leo has asked that you inform Mr. Gadar that Leo has been detained in Wisconsin on tax matters and that he is now ready to comply with the thirty billion USD humanitarian-development allocation over the next five years as agreed upon with Mr. Gennady Filchin and Boris Yeltsin.

Please ask Mr. Gadar if he is aware of the false allegations made in Thieve's World and if he has received a copy of the Cease and Desist to Simon and Schuster and a copy of Leo's letter to Boris Yeltsin.

Please ask Mr. Gadar for his current fax and ask him to communicate with Mr. Wanta through Mr. Sali or Gerald Salchert as his representatives at the above fax or telephone numbers.

Please inform Mr. Gadar that Mr. Wanta is in contact with Ukraine and other republics in the assistance programs and that all original agreements made under George Bush are still intact. Mr. Wanta requests that Mr. Gadar seek clarification of Mr. Wanta's legal situation in the State of Wisconsin and that he assist in clarifying the false allegations.

MANILA, PHILIPPINES, SUNDAY, JULY 20, 1986

American questioned on gun ring

TOP Immigration officials at the Manila International Airport yesterday began tracking down an American national believed in possession of vital documents linking several government officials to a gunrunning syndicate which supplies high-powered weapons to a secret organization known to be "anti-government."

Miguel Ramos, airport immigration intelligence chief, dispatched a team of crack investigators to look into the mysterious disappearance of Leo Wanta, 46, president of an American firm dealing in "highly confidential matters" in Manila minutes after he was prevented from boarding a San Francisco-bound jet at the airport the other night.

Efforts to locate Wanta, who could shed more light on allegations that a rebel group in Manila had been building up its forces in preparation for staging a coup d'etat to topple the present government, had proved futile.

The last known address of Wanta was at the Manila Inter-Continental Hotel in Makati. A check with the hotel management, however, showed that he had not checked in since he was ordered by the immigration officials to stay in the country.

A similar check at the Manila Mandarin Hotel showed that Wanta had already checked out last Friday.

Immigration officers said Wanta was included in the hold-departure list of the immigration commission. The order was issued last July 15 by Associate Commissioner Joshua San Pedro.

San Pedro reportedly issued the hold order after the Manila Mandarin Hotel management asked him to prevent Wanta from leaving the country without settling his debt with the hotel.

Wanta, a passenger of Philippine Airlines flight No. 106, was scheduled to leave for the US last Friday.

Investigation showed that he had already been cleared for boarding by immigration officer Susan Baltazar when it was found out that his name was in the hold-order list.

Baltazar and several intelligence officers rushed to the Philippine Airlines Mabuhay Room at the airport where they found Wanta who was told he could not leave the country.

The surprised Wanta asked the immigration officials to allow him to call the US Embassy in Manila.

During his conversation with an officer at the Embassy, Wanta said he possessed classified documents on negotiations his company had with a "group" in Manila.

The immigration officials who were beside Wanta at that time told The Manila Times that Wanta had referred to an arms deal with a secret military group in Manila.

The immigration officials also, said Wanta mentioned the names of two officials in the country's military establishment who, he said, are his close associates while he was being escorted out of the passengers' waiting lounge.

Immigration officials said they had ordered Wanta to stay in the hotel where he was billeted so that he could be easily located.

However, the immigration agents could not find him in the hotel where he last stayed.

LOVE

My dear friends,
we must love each other.
Love comes from God,
and when we love each other,
it shows that we have been given new life.
We are now God's children,
and we know him.

God is love,
and anyone who doesn't love others
has never known him.
God showed his love for us
when he sent his only Son into the world
to give us life.

Real love is not our love for God,
but his love for us.
God sent his Son
to be the sacrifice
by which our sins
are forgiven.
