Clean government? According to whom?

The proverbial wheels are coming off Wisconsin's reputation for "clean government."

■ Taxpayers already have been billed hundreds of thousands of dollars in legal fees by a group of lawmakers and staff members being investigated for possible involvement with running political campaigns on the public's dime, which is against the law.

At the same time, it is reported that legislative leaders are also being investigated amid allegations that they shook down lobbyists for campaign donations when the lobbyists sought lawmakers' help on certain bills.

Editorial ■ The uproar continues in Milwaukee County over the outrageous pension plan deal that paid some retirees ridiculous lump sum payments and resulted in the resignation of the county administrator and calls to oust County Board members who approved the deal, although they say unwittingly.

The story got dirtier last week when felony charges were filed against Gary J. Dobbert, the so-called architect of the lump-sum payments. Investigators say

The issue: Dobbert, the human resources director, lied when he told the County Board that he had the proposal analyzed by an Several recent incidents cast doubt on expert, as required by law, and when he state's reputation for clean government.

Our view:
It's time for public employees at all levels to lead the fight to restore that reputation.

told the County Board chairman that the deal would be a money-saver.

Dobbert was fired, but he stands to receive an annual pension of more than $60,000. However, under the deal he orchestrated, had he worked until 2008 he would have qualified for a lump sum payment of $826,000, or $350,000 if he worked until 2004, according to the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

There is hope that the pension deal can be rescinded if it can be proved that Dobbert lied to the County Board to get its approval. Any public employee who would accept such an outrageous payment would show their true colors as well.

■ State Rep. Johnnie Morris-Tatum, D-Milwaukee, struck a deal with the state Ethics Board last week in which she agreed to pay a $1,000 fine in addition to $1,800 she repaid the state last year for some $12,000 in personal phone calls billed to the taxpayers.

"It's frustrating, isn't it?" Ethics Board Executive Director Roth Judd told the Journal Sentinel. "The bill went to taxpayers a long time ago. This was as much as we were able to get back."

Morris-Tatum's phone tab included $6,000 in overseas calls, mainly to Senegal. She claimed the calls were for legitimate state business, but when asked by the Journal Sentinel for proof, she couldn't provide any.

We often hear how people in the public sector miss out on the perks private companies offer their workers.

Well, here's something else that happens in the private sector. If you're caught stealing from your employer, the best you can hope for is to get your dishonest butt fired. More likely, especially where thousands of dollars are involved, it's turned over to law enforcement, and you are prosecuted, which could mean probation or prison, and certainly full restitution.

The public must get involved to put the brakes on this disturbing trend, and so should the honest lawmakers and public employees, whose reputations likewise suffer every time one of their own gets caught lying, cheating and stealing from the taxpayers.

Subject : Libby-Reich

Leo: Jeffrey Steinberg, very clever and good US exposeur operative but works for LaRouche.ops (4th International?). Jew-'hating' Jew. Right about Diana.

However look at this connection:

by Jeffrey Steinberg

Democratic Party Presidential pre-candidate Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. punctuated his Jan. 28 State of the Union webcast with a call for the immediate ouster of Lewis Libby from his post as chief of staff and top national security aide to Vice President Dick Cheney. Not only is Libby one of the pivotal players in the Administration "war party," promoting the suicidal invasion of Iraq. He is, notoriously, a mole for Russian "Mafiya" interests linked to his business associate of 18 years, Marc Rich.

The Libby-Rich duo played a filthy role in the Jan. 28 Israeli elections, staging a disruption of Labor Party chair Amram Mitzna's election campaign in the weeks before the vote, in order to secure re-election of serial war-criminal and Mafiya collaborator, Ariel Sharon.

Libby and Rich are also behind the promotion of former French military company clerk, Laurent Murawiec, as a Rand Corporation and Hudson Institute "military strategist," whose only claim to fame was his July 10, 2002 appearance at Richard Perle's Defense Policy Board. There, Murawiec psychotically called for an American invasion and occupation of the Saudi oilfields. Murawiec's Power-Point presentation to Pentagon policy advisers was so outrageous and incompetent, that a storm of protest (after his closed-door pitch leaked to the Washington Post) led to his ouster from a post as "senior analyst" at Rand. In the brouhaha that followed, Murawiec allies in the neo-conservative camp—including Moonie Washington Times senior editor Arnaud de Borchgrave—tried to salvage his shattered image by promoting the fact that in 1985-90, he had operated as an inside spy and provocateur among the European supporters of Lyndon LaRouche.

Indeed, Murawiec had been picked up by Swiss-based organized-crime circles, including Marc Rich, and had conducted an effort to sabotage European circulation of a March 1986 EIR special report, Moscow's Secret Weapon: Ariel Sharon and the Israeli Mafia, which exposed the terror and crime circles behind Sharon, and the Jonathan Jay Pollard spy ring. Later, Murawiec surfaced on the payroll of the Marc Rich Foundation (run by ex-Mossad thug Avner Azulay), penning a shrill chapter on growing American anti-Semitism for a book edited by a top ally of self-professed Zionist fascist Vladimir Jabotinsky.

Libby and Marc 'Filthy' Rich

Sources in and around the Bush Administration have reported that Lewis Libby has emerged as one of the most rabid "chicken-hawks" in Washington. Libby has been identified as protector of the nest of Sharonists in the Pentagon and State Department who were discredited, following the Murawiec incident last July, and only avoided being fired from top posts through Libby's intervention. Among Libby's allies in the Administration "war party" are Deputy Defense Secretary Paul Wolfowitz, Assistant Defense Secretary for Policy Doug Feith, and State Department arms control adviser David Wurmser.

Libby was part of a troika of wanna-be Pentagon imperialists, back in the Bush "41" Administration, who urged then-Defense Secretary Dick Cheney to adopt the doctrine of pre-emptive warfare—in response not to Saddam Hussein or Osama bin Laden, but to the collapse of the Soviet Union and the opportunity for the United States to emerge as the only global military power. Along with Wolfowitz and Zalmay Khalilzad, Libby promoted the insane notion of pre-emptive war against any nation or bloc of nations that might at some point, challenge American military hegemony. The scheme was enthusiastically embraced by Cheney, but rejected by (the elder) President Bush, his National Security Adviser Brent Scowcroft, and Secretary of State James Baker III—only to resurface nine years later, after the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks.

Libby also served as staff director for the Cox Commission, a Clinton-era Congressionally mandated study group which promoted the idea of a future conflict with China, along the lines of Bernard Lewis and Samuel Huntington's wild call for a "Clash of Civilizations" war between the West on the one side, and the Islamic world and China on the other.

But Lewis Libby's real claim to fame is his 18-year collaboration with Russian Mafiya "godfather" Marc Rich. As an understudy to Washington power lawyer Leonard Garment, Libby was the personal attorney for Rich from 1985, shortly after Rich fled the United States to avoid criminal prosecution for tax evasion and "trading with the enemy"—for illegal oil dealings with the Khomeini regime in Iran, while they were holding American hostages.

Rich set up in Zug, Switzerland, and became one of the most important figures in busting the oil embargoes against apartheid South Africa, Iran, and, later, Iraq. All the while, Libby toiled as Rich's legal flack in America, presenting the swindler and Mossad bankroller as a victim of overzealous prosecutors.

Operation Spiderweb

Libby was the Svengali orchestrating the setup of President Bill Clinton to grant Rich a pardon in early 2001, just as Clinton left office. Libby, in Congressional testimony, admitted to working with ex-Al Gore attorney Jack Quinn, and two "former" Mossad agents in Rich's employ, to secure the pardon.

Now, Rich may be running into problems. He is a target of "Operation Spiderweb," a crackdown by Italian, Swiss, British, and American law enforcement agencies on a $9 billion Russian Mafiya money-laundering scheme (see box). "Spiderweb" aims at Grigory Loutchansky, head of the Nordex conglomerate of companies and a top figure implicated in the flow of illegal campaign funds into Ariel Sharon's recent re-election campaign—and at Rich.

In addition, French ministers at the end of January launched into a flurry of attacks on Rich around two other big scandals, involving the asset stripping and bankrupting of a French metal firm by Rich, and a large tanker oil spill off the coast of Portugal, also involving a Rich-owned firm.

Meanwhile, earlier in the month, at Libby's behest, Rich and fellow gangster Michael Steinhardt went to Israel to run the operation against Labor Party chairman Mitzna which undermined Labor's election campaign and helped cover up, for a while, corruption scandals that were damaging Sharon's re-election bid. Steinhardt confessed to a Washington journalist that he met Sharon secretly, and then joined Marc Rich to orchestrate a Labor revolt against Mitzna, for his refusal to enter a national unity government with Sharon.

The covert fund is said to have accumulated $210 billion. Bush wants to use the funds to help his political allies, including his son, George Jr., the governor of Texas, who has a habit of telling judges how to apply the "Liberty Lobby exception." Wanta is under house arrest, according to Washington reporter Sarah McClendon. Wanta's lawyers say they want Bill Clinton to provide clemency. No word yet from the White House.

WISC. STATE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY BRIEFING

12-15-93

Failure to pay taxes is charge

Leo Wanta is a man of international intrigue, no matter whose story you believe.

Depending on who is doing the talking, Wanta is either a CIA and U.S. customs agent, or he is a crook who has defrauded business people throughout the world.

Wanta, 53, was charged Tuesday in Dane County Circuit Court with failing to pay more than $200,000 in state income taxes from 1986 to 1989. He claimed diplomatic immunity from prosecution.

Assistant Attorney General Judith Schultz said the state has been attempting to get Wanta into court voluntarily since early 1992.

Meanwhile, Schultz said, Wanta has been arrested for fraud in Singapore; Bangkok, Thailand; and in Geneva, where he told Swiss officials he was a Somalian ambassador and was a friend of Al Gore.

Wanta was deported from Switzerland last month and arrested upon his return to the United States.

In a sometimes rambling speech in court, Wanta called the charges a "sham and a fraud" and insisted he had never been arrested for the crimes Schultz claimed. He said he is a legitimate businessman who lives in Vienna, Austria, and owns a corporate home in Appleton. He originally gave jail officials a Toronto address.

He was held in the Dane County Jail on $90,000 cash bail.

LEO WANTA is going to prison.

Wanta protests all the way to prison

■ "You were wrong," the tearful convicted tax cheat tells his prosecutor

By Cliff Miller
Post-Crescent Madison bureau

MADISON - Former Appleton businessman Leo E. Wanta was sentenced Monday to eight years in prison followed by six years of probation for filing false income tax returns and hiding taxable income in 1988 and 1989.

Dane County Circuit Judge Michael Torphy imposed the sentence nearly two years after Wanta was returned to this country from a Swiss jail to answer the state charges. Stammering and tearful, Wanta continued to protest his innocence. "I'm very stunned," he said.

"I know there's conspiracy and subterfuge here," he said in a rambling recount of his claims of having been an undercover federal agent in Asia and Europe who was exempt from state taxes.

"I just want to get out of here," he said, his voice breaking. "This is bogus." He tearfully thanked Torphy for freeing him on bond to live with his daughter and care for her twin sons who were born after he was arrested.

He told the judge that Department of Revenue Special Agent Dennis Ullman, Appleton, "continues to manipulate Doug Haag," the assistant attorney general who prosecuted him.

As sheriff's deputies prepared to remove Wanta from the courtroom, Haag shook his hand and wished him luck. Wanta answered, "You were wrong." Wearing handcuffs and a dark pinstripe suit, he was led off to jail.

Haag dismissed Wanta's stories as those of "a 55-year-old man who is a calculating, manipulative con man."

Haag asked the court to impose maximum sentences of 13 years in prison and nine years of probation. He also asked the court to require restitution of unpaid taxes and penalties totaling $671,819 plus court costs and public defender's costs.

The state said Wanta earned more than $166,000 in 1988 and $63,000 in 1989 but filed income tax

LOVE

My dear friends,
we must love each other.
Love comes from God,
and when we love each other,
it shows that we have
been given new life.
We are now God's children,
and we know him.
God is love,
and anyone who
doesn't love others
has never known him.
God showed his love for us
when he sent his only Son
into the world
to give us life.
Real love is not
our love for God,
but his love for us.
God sent his Son
to be the sacrifice
by which our sins
are forgiven.
