Dear Lea Wanta:

I am writing in response to your fax, received August 3, 2016, to the United States Attorney's Office of the Department of Justice, regarding your concerns. We apologize for our delay in responding.

The fax received was addressed to President Barack Obama, Vice President Joe Biden, U.S. Congress members, news media, and the International Court of Justice. If you would like to express your concerns to The White House, you can write to The White House, 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20500, by calling 202-456-1111, or online at <https://www.whitehouse.gov/contact>. You may contact your congressional representatives at <http://www.house.gov> and <https://www.senate.gov>. Many media outlets have websites, where you may contact them directly. You may contact the International Court of Justice by writing to Peace Palace, Carnegieplein 2, 5217 KJ The Hague, The Netherlands, by calling +31-70-302-23-23, or online at <http://www.icj-cij.org/en/contact-the-court>.

The United States Attorney's Office is not an investigatory agency. If you believe you have been the victim of a federal crime, you can contact the nearest office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). The FBI is the investigative arm of the Department of Justice, upon which we rely to do the initial fact finding for possible federal criminal cases. You can contact the Milwaukee Office of the FBI by writing to 3600 S. Lake Drive, St. Francis, WI 53235, by calling 414-276-4684 or online at www.fbi.gov/contact-us/field-offices/milwaukee. If you believe you are a victim of another crime, you may seek the assistance of a local police department.

You may wish to consult private counsel who can advise you regarding your legal rights and remedies. If you do not have an attorney or you cannot afford the services of an attorney, you can contact your state bar association to see if they can refer you to a reduced-fee attorney or resources that can offer free legal help. You can contact the Wisconsin State Bar Association by calling 608-257-3838, or by writing to 5302 Eastpark Blvd, Madison WI 53718.

Since we do not contemplate taking further action, we are returning your documents to you.
Thank you for seeking our assistance.

Sincerely,

Duty Law Clerk

Ambassador:

We have been working on this 200MT gold deal with Thomas Melville. There has been one excuse after another and so we wrote to the US Treasury to find out who this guy was listed below in my wife's email to US Treasury legal department. I don't know what is going on but I have passed other business transactions because of this transaction. Now, it appears that it will never happen. I know that you and Thomas have written to this guy because we found documentation on the internet regarding this with both of your signatures. As far as I am concerned Thomas Melville owes me $40 million dollars for making false claims and for taking me from 4 other gold deals far larger than this one. My wife is furious and I am not happy as well. I don't know what is going on but I tried to ask Melville for a small amount of money because we are struggling and he told me to quit bothering him and that he had other things to do. I have followed you for years and promoted you on Twitter. I have trusted you but this contact has really let us down. Worst of all, the bank billion guy that has the gold for sale may pursue this and his contact, my friend has lost serious credibility over this. I don't know what you can do, but with your contacts, you should really do something. Why would Treasury say Hamid does not exist?

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA

ALEXANDRIA DIVISION

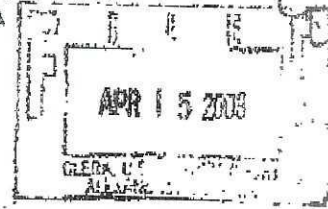

AMBASSADOR LEO WANTA,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 02-1363-A

MEMORANDUM OPINION

THIS MATTER is before the Court on Defendants the United States of America, et al.'s, motion to dismiss Plaintiff Ambassador Leo Wanta's claim of breach of contract based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction and on Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint. The issue before the Court is whether the Court should dismiss an alleged secret government agent's claim against the Attorney General, the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Government based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction. The Court grants Defendants' motion to dismiss pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(1) because the Government has not waived sovereign immunity and public policy forbids the adjudication of a suit relating to matters of an alleged national security contract. The Court denies Plaintiff's motion to amend his complaint under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a) because such an action would be futile.
