Ref: Affidavit: Leo Wanta/Pat Cameron

Dear John,

I spoke with Pat regarding your affidavit for Leo. Pat said it would be helpful if your statement were short, simply attesting (if true) that you were present in Paris on a specific (or approximate) date at the swearing-in of Leo E. Wanta as Somali ambassador to Canada --and that you witnessed the embossing of the credentials confirming the appointment.

Pat thought it would be best to leave off some of the details (such as the simultaneous appointment as ambassador to Switzerland) but, I suppose you should mention that President Haji did the swearing-in.

Leo asked me to send you some internet material regarding the case --and I'll try to get something to you this week.

Thank you very much John. Kindest regards to your family and Tony.

Your friend,

Jerry

Eagle One to Wanta     Documentary Overview

Project Name “Eagle One to Wanta” The inspiring life and times of Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta

The Mission: To use a creditable documentary style film format to communicate the truth about Leo Emil Wanta's dedicated life of service to our country. Leo Wanta is also known as Lee Emil Wanta and Ambassador Lee or Leo Emil Wanta. The audience is worldwide for everyone to know the truth and understand its impact on the world conditions today. Our purpose is to expose , financial and political corruption, and inter alia, by telling this compelling true story in an honest, accurate, and inspiring way, so that generations to come can have a positive future based on freedom and hope.

Project Description

Washington State based award winning Gibby Media Group, Inc. has been commissioned to produce this exclusive feature film documentary based on the biography Amazon book release "WANTA" Black Swan, White Hat, written by Marilyn MacGruder Barnewall. The documentary will use the book and author's extensive research as a foundation to storyboard and produce an exclusive feature documentary film. The suggested title, "Eagle One to Wanta" represents President Ronald Wilson Reagan's code name to his communication with secret agent Leo Wanta. The production will be 114 to 120 minutes in length and be suitable for a first Theatrical release, and worldwide film festivals participation. The film will be released and distributed on all digital formats. Beryl Wolk has signed an agreement to fund 100% of this project. If successful in his efforts to provide funding in time frame required he will become an equity partner in the project.

Additional Information:

Back ground information can be obtained by going to the Coast-to-Coast live radio interview of Mrs. Barnewall (hour 1) and Ambassador Wanta (hours 2 and 3). Lon Gibby the Director of the film documentary project was also briefly interviewed on the broadcast in second hour discussing the focus of the documentary. There were 3 million live listeners that night on the 600 radio stations nationwide (and in Guam, etc.) on which Coast-to-Coast is heard. <https://app.box.com/s/ly76nqpfl1yoyvm81x5q> . This recording exemplifies the large audiences drawn to the name of Ambassador Lee Emil Wanta. Mrs. Barnewall's book which can be found at <http://wantarevelations.com/wanta-black-swan-white-hat> . The book was uploaded to the wantarevelations Web site on August 1, 2014. Again, to prove the audience drawn to Ambassador Wanta's name, by December 31, 2014, a million visitors had gone to the Web site to view the book. Since these numbers were achieved with absolutely no publicity, they are phenomenal. There is no doubt that a huge audience awaits the release of this documentary to which Beryl wolk has committed to fund. There are other radio shows scheduled in the very near future with Coast to Coast and Chuck Wilder out of Los Angeles, Randy Yarborough out of Colorado, Richard Syrett (50,000 kw station in Toronto, Ontario), etc., and there are numerous articles written about the Ambassador on News With Views (a million readers per week), Veterans

Today All of this information is public.

This project is fully endorsed and funded by Beryl Wolk. You may contact the documentary project partner and Director Lon Gibby with any questions you may have relating to this project.

For some reason Berly sent me the same notes he did last week to my first letter and did not address the second letter? I just sent him back this simple statement. I had a return call from him yesterday which was basically the same scenario? none if his friends have responded. Don't quite understand this guy?

I wish the words "non-exclusive" appeared in the paragraph about the 6 ten-minute trailers. He needs to know that we intend to provide a Wanta University on the documentary Web page... to sell tee shirts, sweatshirts, baseball caps, etc., (an idea Lee and I discussed almost three years ago) as well as the audio to the book.

Lee wants to use the juicer I'm sending to you to make a chocolate malt – what a way to celebrate his birthday! Can you and MaryAnn pick up some vanilla ice cream, chocolate syrup, almond milk and malt? I'll be glad to pay you for them when I get there. He's not sure about the almond milk so I told him we'd make him two half malts... one with almond, one with regular milk and he can see if he can tell the difference. I don't think he'll be able to. I want him to use the almond milk because he's lactose intolerant and regular milk will give him gas/stomach problems. But he thinks the idea of being able to use the juicer to make himself malted milks is great, so I'm hoping to convince him that he won't be able to taste the difference between almond and regular milk (not almond vanilla, just regular almond milk). It seems a good idea that he should be able to get the first drink from his juicer, rather than me. I'll pick it up from you when we go to your house on the 2nd.

I have spent the day on the phone with Sheldon and Don re Senator Corker's office talking with the IMF. It's 4:30 and I'm just getting started on the day's work... good grief!
