In Re:

FALLS VENDING SERVICE, INC.,

ORDER

Debtor.

C.A. No. 84-C-359

The matter under consideration began when Leo E. Wanta, designating himself as "stipulated petitioner for Falls Vending Service, Inc.," filed various motions challenging actions taken by the United States Bankruptcy Court for this district in a case entitled In Re: Falls Vending Service, Inc., Debtor (Case No. 83-02385). Wanta's motions are resisted by the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Menomonee Falls, a secured creditor in the bankruptcy action. Magistrate Robert L. Bittner, after a thorough examination of the matter, has recommended dismissing the action because Wanta lacks standing and also has failed to properly invoke this court's jurisdiction. I concur in the magistrate's analysis and adopt his recommendation in full.

In his written objections, Wanta contends that the magistrate's analysis of his standing is faulty because Falls Vending Service is not a legal and valid corporation, and therefore, cases holding that a corporation can only be represented by licensed counsel do not apply to this matter. Even if Falls Vending Service is not a corporation, Wanta lacks standing because his affidavit testimony indicates he is only an employee of the company. The owner of a company cannot confer standing on a non-lawyer employee by stipulation or otherwise.

Wanta's objections do not address his failure to properly invoke this court's jurisdiction. No complaint has been filed. Wanta failed to follow the proper procedures to perfect an appeal pursuant to Part 8, Rule 8001 et seq. of the United States Bankruptcy Rules. The matter must be dismissed sua sponte for lack of jurisdiction.

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED that the action is hereby dismissed.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 7th day of Sept, 1984.

It is interesting to note that Leo Emil Wanta was illegally detained on July 7, 1993 in Lausanne, Switzerland for failure to pay US $14,129.00 for a 1988/1989 State of Wisconsin tax assessment; ignoring the facts that the US $14,129.00 was paid-in-full and settled by Wisconsin Department of Revenue Agreement, June 24, 1992.

While waiting for illegal abduction - July 7 to 17 November 1993, Wanta received chemical castration in Suisse Prison with all other inmates, contrary to numerous International Laws, USA/Canada Laws, Vienna Convention, Wisconsin Statutes, inter alia.

Wanta returned to USA by illegal and forceful abduction; whereas, a U.S. District Court on 19 November 1993, issued a full dismissal with prejudice in relation to false allegations of State of Wisconsin in May, 1993 to U.S. Federal Magistrate to abduct Wanta via U/S. State Department, Wisconsin State Attorney General, Wisconsin Department of Revenue tax agents and Suisse authorities through subterfuge, conspiracy, perjury, inter alia.

Donald Trump may move his Far East office in HK to S'pore

By Chow Chee Sun

AMERICAN billionaire Donald Trump's leisure division is looking to move its Far East representative office to Singapore from Hongkong soon.

Mr Javier Tejada, Vice-President of International Marketing for Trump Plaza Hotel and Casino, said the group was "seriously considering" moving its listening post to the Republic within six months to a year.

He said the Trump Organisation, the vehicle of real estate tycoon Donald Trump which manages three hotels and casinos, several luxurious condominiums and an airline operating 21 Boeing-727 aircraft, was currently undergoing "radical" changes.

"Up to now, the group's business has been New York-based and very provincial. But whoever is looking at the future has to be a global player," said Mr Tejada.

He added that the Asia-Pacific region could not be ignored where business expansion was concerned, and a move to set up a listening post in Singapore would be in line with that objective.

Mr Tejada was speaking to The Straits Times yesterday on board the Trump Princess, the personal luxury yacht of Mr Trump which is now up for sale at US$115 million (S$213.90 million).

Mr Ernie Cheung, Director of International Marketing of Trump Plaza, said the move to Singapore was influenced by the Republic's good communications and trade infrastructure and Hongkong's political uncertainties.

Mr Cheung, who is based in Hongkong, and Mr Tejada are in Singapore to meet local businessmen to explore possible business ventures.

Mr Tejada said he felt there are many business opportunities in Singapore for the Trump Organisation, but that initially the flow of business would be from the Republic to New York.

He added that he hoped Mr Trump himself could come to Singapore "some time soon" to meet and talk to the local "taipans".

The Trump Organisation will be hosting several parties on board the Trump Princess during its stay here. The guest lists will include the "Who's who" in the local business community.

Last night, guests from multinational corporations, hotel-related companies and real estate developers were invited to dinner on board the vessel.

The vast, luxurious main salon with its cozy atmosphere and the intimacy of its decor.

A Princess fit for a king

YOUR very own shower compartment carved out of a solid onyx block with 16 shower heads, a private elevator to your own sundeck and swimming pool, luxurious suites replete with electronic gadgets and secret panels — these are all part of a floating paradise that can be yours for US$115 million (S$213.90 million).

The Trump Princess is without doubt the world's most luxurious motor yacht that comes with a chequered history.

Formerly owned by Saudi arms dealer Adnan Khashoggi, the boat now belongs to American billionaire Donald Trump.

It is in Singapore as part of a promotional tour. The Trump Princess is the flagship of Mr Trump who is selling the vessel to build an even larger one.

Used extensively for entertaining his friends and business associates, the Trump Princess also boasts a discotheque, cinema, heli-pad and a bullet-proof sauna.

The 86-m yacht was originally built in 1980 by Khashoggi, who is now out on bail and awaiting trial on charges of fraud and obstruction of justice.

The boat was sold for $29 million in 1987 to Mr Trump, who poured another $25 million into the vessel for a substantial refit.

A few years ago, the boat was used in the James Bond movie, Never say Never, starring Sean Connery.

Yesterday, Mr Jonathan Beckett, Director of London yacht agents Nigel Burgess

Ltd, said there are currently four prospective buyers — two from the Far East and one each from Europe and the US. Two have made serious offers but Mr Beckett declined to give specifics.

However, Mr Jeffrey Walker, Senior Vice-President of Trump Organisation, said the chances of selling the Trump Princess to someone from Singapore were "slim" as they are quite "low key" about their wealth. — Chow Chee Sun.
