Wanta Money Languishing In 'Hands of the Devil'

The $4.5 trillion still not released, but Wanta and his group, who have recently remained silent, may go public next week if money not released by Wednesday.
14 Oct 2006

By Greg Szymanski

The Leo Wanta $4.5 trillion - earmarked for the American people - is still languishing in the "hands of the devil" and, according to Wanta and his staff, they are receiving "very little assistance" from the evil powers that be in repatriating the stolen off shore money.

Calls to top level U.S. government officials and the Washington D.C. Jesuit Order headquarters have gone unanswered as to the veracity of Wanta's story and as to the whereabouts of the $4.5 trillion.

High level members of both the government and the Society of Jesus have been targeted as suspects in the theft of trillions since the end of the Cold War, according to several researchers following the story.

"It's turning out to be like a Dr. Strangelove situation as our efforts have pretty much been ignored," said Michael C. Cottrell, treasurer of Wanta's financial group set up to handle the money. "If we do not get the money by next Wednesday, then we are going to implement some severe measures to get it released and perhaps go public again with what has happened."

Cottrell added the "people in the White House" can't be trusted with honoring the financial deal entered into by Wanta, saying in lieu of releasing the trillions he wouldn't be surprised if the October Surprise talked about in the media turned out to be all out war in the Middle East.

Repeated attempts to contact Wanta have also gone unanswered ever since he recently went into hiding, claiming security reasons due to death threats. However, Cottrell said t Wanta may begin talking again next week if last ditch efforts to release the money fail.

"I just got off the phone with Leo and we had a long talk about what to do," said Cottrell.

Wanta has been at odds with the powers that be ever since he was declared legal trustor of more than $27.5 trillion accumulated as a result of his financial efforts on behalf of President Ronald Reagan to destabilize the Russian currency at the end of the Cold War.

Furthermore, Wanta was jailed for the better part of a decade for trying to return trillions to the American people, as Reagan had dictated, but later was backstabbed by the following three presidential administrations who instead wanted to illegally pocket the money for their own personal use, according to Wanta.

Previously, Wanta came forward with these allegations, presenting documentation of more $745 billion in misdirected and stolen money, attributing the thievery to those occupying the White House after Reagan left office.

Upon his release about a year and a half ago from a Wisconsin state prison, Wanta set out on a financial quest to repatriate the money according to Reagan's directives, in May entering into a negotiated settlement with the powers that be to return $4.5 trillion for the benefit of the U.S. economy.

However, the money has been blocked by the Bush administration since May and according to Wanta first being held up in a Virginia Bank of America account and now being held illegally in a New York Citibank account.

Besides the $4.5 trillion supposedly earmarked for the American people with $1.6 trillion to be paid in federal taxes, Wanta's shocking testimony opens the door to the devious way the last three presidential administrations have been bilking the American people out of trillions of dollars, using the "off the books offshore" money for covert purposes, including funding to the New World/lluminati's quest to destroy America socially, economically and politically.

Other strange events surrounding the "trillion dollar deal" is that the Bush administration has reportedly put incredibly tight restrictions on the release of the money, recently saying they will release the funds only when "we are God Damn ready."

Since his release even more questions linger as to whether Wanta is being used as a patsy by the powers that be, including high level officials in both the U.S. government and the Vatican.

Wanta has never addressed whether Vatican involvement has ever determined the fate of the trillions stolen and used by the New World Order to bring down the American economy, saying he was always a loyal servant working on the directions of President Ronald Reagan, who he considered to be an American hero.

It should be noted Reagan was the first President since the middle 1860's to reinstitute formal diplomatic ties with the Vatican after ties were broken to to widespread knowledge the Vatican and Jesuit Order assisted in the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln.

Although Wanta has declared loyalty and admiration of Reagan, many others consider him to be an American traitor in the first degree by allowing the Vatican-led New World Order to flourish and continue its devious take over of this country.

Furthermore, the Wanta story has up until now succeeded in creating serious agitation among the American people who are expecting to see some "financial light at the end of the tunnel" while creating, at the same time, a financial uproar around the world, attacking the full faith and credit of our nation while adding more fuel to the firestorm and downfall of our economy.

And if you look closely, isn't that exactly what the Vatican-led New World Order has planned for this country, planning a complete financial, social, political and moral destruction.

The questions regarding the Ambassador Wanta story need to be answered in hopes that the release of his money will help the cause of freedom and not further fuel the diabolical fires of fascism, working behind the scenes to destroy this country.

It is also hoped that if Wanta decides to talk again he will address issues concerning Vatican involvement, if any, as well as setting the record straight about many things concerning the first placement of the $4.5 trillion in the Jesuit-owned Bank of America and then in Citibank in the firm control of many Knights of Malta members.

Arctic Beacon Editor "Goes Public" With Threats and Harassment Over Wanta Story

Editor also goes public in order to protect the safety of Wanta, who is hiding and staying out of the public eye until the $4.5 trillion is released for the betterment of the U.S. economy. Also, when Vatican manipulation of the Wanta money was questioned, only then did the strange sequence of events and surveillance begin.
 1 Oct 2006

By Greg Szymanski

The Ambassador Leo Wanta story gets stranger and stranger with each passing day, as the Arctic Beacon editor has been targeted with harassment and threats ever since about a week ago when he began "putting under the microscope" whether the Vatican and Jesuit Order were using Wanta and this publication as patsies.

The series of articles last week did not question Wanta's credibility but whether "something unpredictable" was going on behind the scenes -- events unknown to the principal parties involved in trying to repatriate $4.5 trillion in off-shore money.

Wanta has been at odds with the powers that be ever since he was declared legal trustee of more than $27.5 trillion accumulated as a result of his financial efforts on behalf of President Ronald Reagan to destabilize the Russian currency at the end of the Cold War.

Furthermore, Wanta was jailed for the better part of a decade for trying to return trillions to the American people, as Reagan had dictated, but later was backstabbed by the following three presidential administrations who instead wanted to illegally pocket the money for their own personal use, according to Wanta.

Previously, Wanta came forward with these allegations, presenting documentation of more $745 billion in misdirected and stolen money, attributing the thievery to those occupying the White House after Reagan left office.

Upon his release about a year and a half ago from a Wisconsin state prison, Wanta set out on a financial quest to repatriate the money according to Reagan's directives, in May entering into a negotiated settlement with the powers that be to return $4.5 trillion for the benefit of the U.S. economy.

However, the money has been blocked by the Bush administration since May and according to Wanta first being held up in a Virginia Bank of America account and now being held illegally in a New York Citibank account.

Besides the $4.5 trillion supposedly earmarked for the American people with $1.6 trillion to be paid in federal taxes, Wanta's shocking testimony opens the door to the devious way the last three presidential administrations have been bilking the American people out of trillions of dollars, using the "off the books offshore" money for covert purposes, including funding to the New World/Illuminati's quest to destroy America socially, economically and politically.

Other strange events surrounding the "trillion dollar deal" is that the Bush administration has reportedly put incredibly tight restrictions on the release of the money, recently saying they will release the funds only when "we are God Damn ready."

The Bush administration reportedly also wants the following conditions met before the release of the Wanta money:

They want it done quietly with no press coverage. They want to take credit for the release of the $4.5 trillion as if they were the "good guys wearing white hats." They want only the principal parties to mention the release by the verification of $1.6 trillion due in taxes without mentioning the use and purpose of the remainder of the money. And, of course, the administration wants no mention about how many trillions have been stolen in the past or how the trillions are to be used in the future.

Until recently, Wanta has always "gone public" with his accusations and financial details about the repatriation settlement, but of late has been hiding away and staying out of the public eye, citing security reasons.

And it wasn't until last week, after the Vatican involvement was questioned and a strange sequence of events occurred involving the whole Wanta story, that finally prompted the Arctic Beacon editor to "go public" in an effort to protect his future, the future of his family and/or the safety of Ambassador Wanta.

Here is an update and the sequence of strange events that occurred:

According to principals close to the story, Wanta is keeping out of sight and a very low profile, fearing for his safety as the release of the money may only be days away.

According to Michael C. Cottrell, treasurer of Wanta's financial company established to distribute the trillions for the betterment of the U.S. economy, if the money isn't released in the next few days, he is prepared to go public again on Greg Szymanski's radio show, The Investigative Journal on the Genesis Communications Radio Network at www.gcnlive.com.

The following strange sequence of events, occurring after the Jesuit Order and Vatican's motives were questioned related to the Wanta story, took place in the following manner, leading the Arctic Beacon editor to go public in order to protect himself as well as protecting the safety of Ambassador.

The editor also told his story Saturday on a Christian radio network in order that the harassment and threats be immediately chronicled publicly, as and added measure of safety and protection for the parties involved. Here is the sequence of events as they occurred:

----After an article appeared in the Arctic Beacon critical of the Vatican and Jesuits, a call was placed to the landline phone number of the editor on Sept. 21, asking for an unknown individual. The call was obviously placed from an Intelligence Agency since the number was non-existent and was traced to be 489-489-4894.

----After the editor conducted an interview with former Catholic Bishop of Guatemala, Gerard Bouffard, on Sept. 22, highly critical with eye-witness testimony implicating the Jesuit Order and Vatican as the spiritual controllers of the New World Order, a threatening email was received on Sept 23 essentially telling the editor to leave the country quickly or blood may be shed.

---- After several stories appeared in the Arctic Beacon questioning the Jesuit manipulation of the Wanta story and asking questions why Wanta was not communicating with an "old friend" who essentially verified his story, Wanta left a message on the editor's answering machine asking for a minor change, saying to call Cottrell since he was traveling. The funny thing about the call was that it was placed from a calling card number in a town very near the vicinity of the editor's residence.

---- On Sept. 28, the editor also received a message on his answering machine, saying the story had "created quite a stir" also indicating a minor word correction needed to be made on the story. Later in phone conversations, Cottrell indicated Wanta had called from nearby the editor's location, but was staying out of the public eye since he feared for his life. Cottrell added from what he knew and heard Wanta's life was in danger and the editor was being put under surveillance and harassed, as a scare tactic to quite down the story and perhaps give a clue to Wanta's location.

---- On Sept. 30 the editor received an email from France or Brussels, where Wanta has people handing his financial affairs, saying Wanta was going to meet with his "old friend", an international financier, as well as meet with the editor, saying " Amb Wanta will be seeing you soonest as well .... Further, he had never stated he did not want to speak w/you, but he is not in WI presently ...for security reasons."

---- In the late morning on Sept. 30, the editor received another call from Intelligence, this time from a man with a Middle Eastern accent asking if Rati was home. The number again was traced as nonexistent and was the same 489-489-4894 number used on Sept. 21.

Although Cottrell added that he didn't think the Catholic Church was involved in the background of the Wanta story, it should be noted that this strange series of events surrounding the story only occurred after the Vatican and Jesuit Order's manipulation was questioned.

Average Americans Speak Out About Wanta Trillions

Maybe Americans want a piece of the trillion dollar pie, too! If Bush Sr. can have it, why can't we?
 30 Sep 2006

By Greg Szymanski

Thousands of emails have flooded into the Arctic Beacon about the Leo Wanta story, making one wonder if everybody is silently thinking: "I want a piece of the trillion dollar action, too!"

Well, that's not so far fetched since the $4.5 trillion waiting in the wings, according to Ambassador Wanta and the Reagan protocols, is earmarked for the benefit of the American people.

And perhaps distributing all the stolen money equally "man by man" isn't so outlandish since men or better yet beasts like George H. Bush and William Jefferson "Bly" Clinton having been busy dividing it equally amongst their New World Order friends, of course, on strict orders by the real controllers of the Illuminati, the Jesuit Order.

There have been many expert opinions expressed on these pages about the complex Wanta trillions, but many of the more amusing and interesting comments have come from average Americans, pitching in their two cents. Here are just a few of the emails about the Wanta story:

From: Michael

To: Greg;

(Note: L or LW stand for Leo Wanta)

For what this is worth, merely speculating of course, it makes even less sense that L would be released (from jail), unless induced to accept early release in exchange for something perceived to be of extreme value to 'them'. That he was left with heart and lungs in tact is itself a mystery, given that 'they' had at least some of the funds. If obtaining critical encryption codes or account nos. or other info was an issue, and if he was the sole holder as Trustor or Trustee, then they would need him alive to eventually get it out of him. From what I understand hypnosis and advanced pharmacology could more than take care of that issue. So, what is it?

Your hypothesis about the bigger picture of the jes-u-its needing to destroy the American [protestant] republic is likely much closer to the all of it than not. Beyond the isolated fact issue of the 'money' and gaining unfettered access and control of it, is the issue of how to use an orchestrated default on the repatriation of it to bring about intensification of certain conditions inside the states and the U.S., as well as to bring about a 'reasonable cause' action by foreign banks and national authorities to crimp the hose on funds flows into the US in excess of 100M. That limitation on value seems arbitrary and almost laughable to me, because anyone could easily get around it by transacting any number of values at any level beneath it to attain an aggregate amount equivalent thereto.

If L is incommunicado with old friends and associates, it may be to protect them. The less they know, the less likely they are to become a target, and the less susceptible to manipulation, coercion etc. Can't squeeze blood from a stone, so just keep all your old buds dumb as a rock. Whatever his motives and m.o. he is likely only discussing this thing with those on a need to know basis, which brings up the question: Why is he talking to you at all, except that he needs to. The question needs qualified further, as to why he needs you or why does he think he needs you, or why is he led to believe that he needs you?

L W cannot repatriate funds into the US and expect it to have any direct benefit to the People of the states, unless there is [regime] change, and I am not talking about just the current admin. I am talking about the way the U.S. is constructed in law, and how the People have no status or standing any longer as freeman Citizens of the Union of several states. The Bill of Rights pertains only to state nationals [non-citizen US nationals] outside of the United States, District of Colombia and its federal territories [States], which are all instrumentalities thereof. The only absolute right of any US person or citizen is to 'residency' in the US. That is it. Everything operates by waiver, assent, acquiescence, presumption, and assumption. The US is in bankruptcy reorganization since 1933, but was in debt up to its eyeballs since the end of the 'Civil War'. The Rothchilds had carried on a multi-generational effort [war against the USA] to gain official government sanction to establish a private 'federal' central bank of the US, and it took them until 1913 to do it. It operated under Congressional charter for the first twenty years, and when it was to sunset in March 1933, the national emergency under NEW DEAL SOCIALIST FDR was declared, and the US has operated without lawful money or any effective 'general' common law since. 'General common law' means Constitutional law, the Constitution being a common law document [of the land as distinct from the 'sea' and admiralty-commercial-contract-military law]. Rothchilds were interested in penetrating the US so the US could become eternally indebted and brought under their dynastic control. The jes-u-its wanted to bring the US into the Vat empire, and had to find progressive ways to undermine and usurp the efforts of the protestant reformation Founders. They and all other non-catholics are deemed under Vat cannon law to be heretics. In short, the inquisition and a silent crusade to either convert or exterminate has been going on in this nation since its founding.

Why you, Greg? Why now? Why is he still pumping air? Even if his heart and mind are clear and in the right place, there is NO WAY that the cabal would ever patriate funds unless they had exclusive legal authority and control over their disposition and use. As this regime is not about creating peace and prosperity anywhere in the world, and certainly not in the US/USA, if funds were eventually patriated, the legal standing of the People as 'US citizens' would preclude them from having any common law right or benefit from it. The US Treasury and the 'Dept of the Treasury-IRS, Puerto Rico [a US territory and possession]' would be the sole beneficiaries. Anything of value in the UST is automatically liened, encumbered, and subject to seizure and confiscation at the will of the creditors on the public debt, which is now beyond even being able to make 'interest only' payments on, and which payments can only be made in gold. The US federal corp would have to be restructured and recast in a radical manner for the W Plan to ever do more than endow the UST and those who use it as their private piggy bank, along with the office of the president and offices of congress, to create negotiable instruments for new debt called 'appropriations bills'. Once the bills are signed into law, they are immediately monetized and become new public debt in the system. If the UST were to be reloaded with new funds in an immediate upfront lump, and under structured payments based upon projected cash flows from future taxes on certain long term ancillary transactions, the UST would be like a sive holding water. The IMF runs the UST and the Sec of the Treasury sits on the Board of the IMF and has taken an oath of allegiance to it, which supercedes the oath of office as Secretary of the UST. In fact, the Secretary of the UST is the Keeper, Receiver, and chief Trustee on the US bankruptcy to its creditors.

If I, is not aware of these things, he needs to play catch-up and spend a few years in a law library.

From: Scott Beach

To: Greg

The U.S. Government's Fiscal Year ends on September 30, 2006. Leo Wanta's trillions will probably be released in early October. The taxes paid to the federal government may then be referred to by Karl Rove as the "October Surprise."

From: Sudan Sterzey

To: Greg

Not only this Wanta story, but what about China taking money out of our economy? Did we go down Alices' rabbit hole?

From: Chris

To: Greg

I have a suggestion for Mr. Wanta.

It is obvious that should the administration acknowledge these funds, the perpetrators are guilty of a wide range of felony violations on a State, Federal, and international level.

Should Mr. Wanta have the proof that these funds were in-fact misappropriated, stolen, embezzled, etcetera, then I think he should file a criminal complaint with the United States Justice Department, United States Attorney's General's Office, and at the same time send a copy of the Complaint to all the media.

I agree with your summation that Mr. Wanta was kept alive for a purpose. Maybe as you say a patsie. However, this is the only way to turn it around, and in doing so making it public record for all to see.

Is Ambassador Wanta Being Used as a NWO Patsie?

The delay in releasing the Wanta $4.5 trillion by the Bush administration forces the story to go to next level of truth. Is the Vatican-led NWO using Wanta as a patsie with the intention of never releasing the money and further escalating the financial destruction of the U.S.?

22 Sep 2006

By Greg Szymanski

It's no secret the Vatican-led New World Order has in its evil eyes on the destruction of America. It's no secret the Jesuit Order is used as Vatican henchmen. And it's no secret they will stop at nothing to achieve their goal of world domination, including total control of America's political, social and financial resources.

If this is case, then how does the does the Ambassador Leo Wanta story fit into the grand scheme of things?

Ambassador Wanta, for those readers who feel the story has fallen off the radar screen, is the former U.S. Treasury agent, assigned by President Reagan, to financially destabilize the Soviet Union at the end of the Cold War.

For his efforts of raising more than $27.5 trillion in off-shore money, he was subsequently incarcerated in a Swiss jail for 133 days and then jailed on Wisconsin state income tax evasion charges for the better part of a decade.

According to Wanta, during his time of incarceration, instead of the trillions being used for the American people, the last three presidential administrations have decided to line their own pockets with the loot, using it for covert operations directly responsible for the destruction of this country.

On his release more than a year ago, Ambassador Wanta decided to retrace his financial steps and repatriate the trillions, as he was legally declared legal trustor of the massive amount of money.

In June, as reported in the Arctic Beacon, he entered into an agreement to repatriate $4.5 trillion with the money to be used for the betterment of the American economy while, at the same time, revealing how the powers that be have been scamming the American people and stealing trillions since the end of the Cold War, money used to fuel the New World Order evil agenda.

Bust since June, according to Wanta, the Bush administration has illegally withheld the money, saying it will release it "when we are God Damn ready."

So, that is where the story sits now, as nothing has changed from the White House's arrogant statement of Sept. 14, according to Wanta and Michael C. Cottrell, treasurer of the financial group formed by Wanta to distribute the trillions to the American people.

However, although nothing has changed, it is necessary with such delays to take this important story to the next level by asking the following important questions based on the fact Wanta and Cottrell appear to be fully credible but based on the fact that the Vatican and the Jesuit Order can never be trusted, especially when it comes to trillions of dollars and a Federal Reserve banking system illegally manipulated by the temporal minions of the Vatican.

Although Wanta and Cottrell appear to be 100 percent legitimate as based on court and settlement documents as well as countless hours of testimony, the question must be asked: Are they being used and manipulated by the Vatican in order to further destabilize the American economy and further debate the credibility of this country since the Vatican has no intention of releasing the trillions while, at the same time, further destroying the full faith and credit of this country?

Further, why would they let Wanta out of jail in the first place unless they wanted to use him for what they considered a greater purpose by baiting the hook with trillions of dollars and knowing full-well they had total control and would never - ever - release the money, using it all along for their evil purposes while accelerating the financial downfall of this country.

Simply put, this story must be taken to the next level - the level where the Jesuits and Vatican reside since it must be questioned whether they have again masterminded another diabolical scheme to steal trillions by using Wanta and Cottrell as patsies and, at the same time, bringing down the U.S. economy which is their main goal in the first place.

Further, ever since this editor took on the challenge of exposing the Vatican and the Jesuit Order, he has been subject to threats and constant character attacks. Although they have not worked, the Wanta story could be just another way, if the right Jesuit trump card falls, to discredit the credibility of this lone reporter who has decided to tackle this story.

However, by exposing this possible duplicity and future "set-up" this now never can happen because the two important questions have now been addressed in an effort to "get at the full truth and nothing but the truth so help me God."

Again, the main questions addressed at the next level of this story are:

Are Wanta and Cottrell being duped and used as patsies while the Jesuits reach further their final goal of financial destruction in the U.S.? And:

Is this editor being set-up by a Jesuit "discrediting campaign" if the trillions are never released and Wanta is made out by Jesuit deceit to be something more than a truth teller?

Whatever they try, the "cat has been let out of the bag", so to speak, as it can be assured by this editor that this story may even go to further levels truth, revealing things that none of us ever thought possible.

So, as they say, let the trillion dollar chips fall where they may and let the truth, no matter how damning and revealing also fall in the proper order that Jesus not Lucifer intended.

Wanta Story Not Over By A Long Shot; $4.5 Trillion Still To Be Released Into U.S. Economy

U.S. officials know they have their dirty hands caught in the trillion dollar cookie jar. Court documents of Ambassador Wanta's 2005 Wisconsin appeal of a bogus income tax evasion conviction reprinted below.

6 Sep 2006

By Greg Szymanski

The continuing saga of Ambassador Leo Wanta is not over by a long shot. It's not over until 'the Fat Lady sings', as they say, even though U.S. authorities are trying hard to make the story disappear, acting like a bunch of second rate magicians in a cheap Las Vegas night club act.

In what has been called by influential financial observers the single-most important story facing the American people, what is most disturbing about the Wanta affair is having to be subjected to the across the board complicity from U.S. lawmakers and the corrupted media barons, both hiding the fact that trillions are being diverted, stolen and hidden from the American people in offshore "off the books" accounts.

Thousands of emails and phone calls have flooded into the Arctic Beacon demanding accountability, but still the entire corrupted Congress and Senate remain quiet as church mice while they allow trillions to flow to their treasonous friends to destroy America.

And, furthermore, while the thievery continues, they have the audacity to do this and still call themselves Americans while the people are left to suffer the evil effects of a coming Luciferian one world government, standing ready to replace American freedom with a Nazi-like fascism.

With the Wanta story bringing out the worst in the corrupted Federal Reserve banking system and the corrupted officials benefiting illegally from it, the following conclusion can be drawn: since of the Congress and Senate do nothing, every last one of them are treasonous traitors and should immediately be removed from office, as they serve Lucifer not God and the good American people.

Although God may be the only one that can stop Lucifer's Illuminati controlling the U.S. government, the cold hard facts show the Wanta story puts a gigantic stumbling block into the New World Order plans to rip apart America morally, socially and financially since it uncovers the means in which this evil group has been financing their evil plans since the end of the Cold War.

It must be reiterated Ambassador Wanta's righteous quest to repatriate more than $27.5 trillion has been thoroughly documented over the course of more than a year by the Arctic Beacon and Greg Szymanski's radio show, The Investigative Journal at www.gcnlive.com from 2pm-4pm central time. Also the story has matured into a recent $4.5 trillion settlement between Wanta and U.S. authorities.

The money, earmarked for the American people, however, has been the subject of a Bush administration cover-up ever since Ambassador Wanta entered into an official written agreement in November 2005 to repatriate money for the betterment of the American economy.

Further, in May Wanta verbally agreed to the distribution of the $4.5 trillion with President Bush along with the assistance of one Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISA) court judge and two U.S. Supreme Court Justices.

The settlement, also negotiated with the help of two major U.S. law firms, represents only a portion of the $27.5 trillion offshore fund established at the end of the Cold War, which is now under the legal control of Ambassador Wanta, as duly appointed trustor, a position given to him by former President Ronald Reagan.

Furthermore, it was always the intention of President Reagan and Ambassador Wanta to use the money for the benefit of the American people. But after Reagan left the political spotlight, Wanta was indiscriminately and illegally jailed by operatives working for the last three presidential administrations, who have instead pilfered the trillions for their own agenda and personal gain.

After Wanta's release from a Wisconsin jail in 2005, he was instructed in a 2003 memorandum opinion by Federal Judge Gerald Bruce Lee of the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Virginia, to try and return the $27.5 trillion to U.S. coffers according to President Reagan's instructions.

The $4.5 trillion settlement is a culmination of his efforts after finding a dark and ominous financial trail of theft, bribery and deception, discovering in his quest to retrace the whereabouts of the offshore money that much of it had been stolen or diverted for private use by the last three presidential administrations.

According to Michael C. Cottrell, treasurer of AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc., the corporation formed to distribute the money to the American people, James R. Wilkinson, deputy national security advisor for communications, last Thursday signed off on the release of the money being held in a Clearing House Interbank Payment System credit account (CHIPS), an account credited to Goldman Sachs and Co. at Citibank.

However, according to Cottrell, after Wilkinson officially "signed-off" on the $4.5 trillion, disturbing twists and turns began to take place as the funds never were properly directed into Ambassador Wanta's account.

"We tried calling Paulson a week ago, but his secretary told us, point blank, never expect a call back from him - ever," said Cottrell Wednesday in an extended telephone conversation about the reluctance of the highest officials in the land to release trillions that would benefit the American economy.

Instead, after repeated inquiries, Cottrell learned the Bush administration had deviously devised an illegal plan to defraud Ambassador Wanta and, in turn, the American people by diverting the CHIPS account first to the Deutsche Bank/Berlin and then to two other banks.

Attempts by the Arctic Beacon to contact Wilkinson and Paulson have been ignored, following a pattern since the story of the settlement broke more than a month ago of every single top ranking American lawmaker or official remaining silent, refusing to ignore the elephant sitting right in the middle of the living room.

Although the Wanta story has been well-documented in the courts, most importantly Wanta himself holds the key documentation of account numbers and names which literally nails to the wall high ranking officials in the last three presidential administrations, including Bush Sr. and Clinton, who have been ripping off the American people to the tune of trillions of dollars.

And it is when Wanta wouldn't play ball with the powers that be, they decided to jail him first in the early 90's for 133 days in a Swiss dungeon and then on a Wisconsin state income tax evasion conviction, where he was subjected to less than due process and a kangaroo court-type atmosphere.

Wanta was accused of not paying $14,000 in state income taxes and sentenced to 22 years even though he hadn't resided in Wisconsin for years and proved he had paid the alleged tax arrears.

Further, why such a long sentence for such a trivial matter unless some powerful people wanted him put away for a long time?

Although Wanta has obtained his release about a year and a half ago after many years in jail, in an effort to fill in some of the legal gaps here is a reprinted copy of a 2005 appeal he made to the Court of Appeals of Wisconsin, District Three, which concluded "that that claim preclusion bars re-litigation of Wanta's tax assessment for 1988 and 1989 and other issues he attempts to raise are outside the [*2] scope of these proceedings, we affirm the (original) judgment. (It should be noted that claims preclusion is a term used to denote a procedural rule used to deny rehearing of the facts of a previously litigated case.)

NOTICE: [*1] : PURSUANT TO RULE 809.23 OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE, AN UNPUBLISHED OPINION IS OF NO PRECEDENTIAL VALUE AND FOR THIS REASON MAY NOT BE CITED IN ANY COURT OF THIS STATE AS PRECEDENT OR AUTHORITY EXCEPT TO SUPPORT A CLAIM OF RES JUDICATA, COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL OR LAW OF THE CASE.

SUBSEQUENT HISTORY: Review dismissed by Wanta v. Wis. Dept of Revenue, 2006 WI 3, 708 N.W.2d 696, 2005 Wisc. LEXIS 1080 (2005)

PRIOR HISTORY: APPEAL from a judgment of the circuit court for Chippewa County: RODERICK K. CAMERON, Judge. Cir. Ct. No. 2004CV340.

State v. Wanta, 224 Wis. 2d 679, 592 N.W.2d 645, 1999 Wisc. App. LEXIS 134 (Wis. Ct. App., 1999)

DISPOSITION: Affirmed.

JUDGES: Before Cane, C.J., Hoover, P.J., and Peterson, J.

OPINION: P1 PER CURIAM. Leo E. Wanta appeals a judgment upholding a decision of the Tax Appeals Commission that Wanta's challenge to the Department of Revenue's personal income tax assessments for 1988 and 1989 is barred by the doctrine of claim preclusion. Wanta argues that (1) claim preclusion does not apply to some of the issues he raises; (2) he is entitled to an accounting for revenues the Department received from the foreclosure sale of his property; (3) the Department should be bound by a letter from a revenue agent; and (4) Wanta should benefit from the Department's release of claims against Wanta's ex-wife under the innocent spouse provisions of WIS. STAT. ? 71.10(6). [n1] Because we conclude that claim preclusion bars relitigation of Wanta's tax assessment for 1988 and 1989 and other issues he attempts to raise are outside the

[*2] scope of these proceedings, we affirm the judgment.

-----Footnotes-----

[n1 ] All references to the Wisconsin Statutes are to the 2003-04 version unless otherwise noted.

-----End Footnotes-----

P2 A jury convicted Wanta of tax fraud for 1988 and 1989 by concealing income. It also convicted him of four counts of concealing properties to evade collection or tax assessment. On June 3, 1996, the sentencing court ordered restitution of over $ 14,000, representing the tax and penalties owed for Wanta's 1988 and 1989 unpaid taxes, less $ 14,129 Wanta paid in June 1992. Wanta unsuccessfully appealed his convictions. In these proceedings, the Department of Revenue seeks enforcement of the restitution order.

P3 The Commission properly concluded that Wanta's challenge to the tax assessment is barred by the doctrine of claim preclusion. Under the doctrine of claim preclusion, a final judgment is conclusive in all subsequent actions between the same parties as to all matters that were litigated or could have been litigated in the former proceeding. [*3] See Northern States Power Co. v. Bugher, 189 Wis. 2d 541, 550, 525 N.W.2d 723 (1995). Claim preclusion applies if there is identity between the parties to the two actions, claims that arise from the same transaction, incident or factual situation, and an earlier adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction. The parties, Wanta and the State, are the same, and Wanta does not contest the identity of parties. The criminal litigation and restitution order and the present litigation apply to the same underlying facts. The criminal court is a court of competent jurisdiction. Therefore, Wanta's defenses that he was not a resident of Wisconsin, did not owe the tax or had already paid the tax are barred because they could have been litigated in the criminal proceeding and restitution hearing.

P4 After the Department's motion for summary disposition before the Commission, Wanta changed attorneys, and his new attorney attempted to interject numerous additional issues into the proceedings. As the Department's briefs repeatedly indicated, the sole issue before the Commission was the propriety of the Department's calculation of Wanta's personal income taxes due [*4] from 1988 and 1989. Wanta seeks a declaration that he is not responsible for the taxes generated by one of his businesses, Falls Vending Services, Inc. [n2] If Wanta's personal tax liabilities for 1988 and 1989 included assigning him responsibility for taxes owed by Falls Vending Services Inc., any challenge to that assessment should have been raised as a defense at trial or at the restitution hearing before the sentencing court. If they were not included in that calculation, they are outside the scope of the present litigation.

-----Footnotes-----

[n2 ] Much of this argument is based on Wanta's assertion that charges raised in the initial complaint regarding Falls Vending Services were dismissed in an "amended complaint." The document he describes as an amended complaint is actually an Information. The Information appears to charge the same six crimes charged as the initial complaint. As is typically the case, the Information does not have a probable cause section and therefore does not provide details regarding the nature of the underlying charges. The documents Wanta filed with the Commission do not establish that any specific accusations in the complaint were withdrawn or dismissed.

-----End Footnotes-----[*5]

P5 Wanta also seeks an accounting for $ 60,000 generated from the foreclosure sale of his property. Documentary evidence shows that a $ 44,000 payment was credited against unpaid fees in connection with other assessments that pre-dated the assessments at issue here. Wanta's belated attempts to secure an accounting regarding all of his tax liabilities raise issues that are outside the scope of these proceedings. He has presented no evidence that funds received by the Department after the date of the restitution hearing were or should have been applied to his 1988 and 1989 personal tax assessments.

P6 Wanta also submitted a February 18, 1999 letter to the Commission from a revenue agent to Wanta's attorney stating "The Department of Revenue has no record of a delinquent tax account issued to Lee E. Wanta." Wanta argues that the Department should be precluded from contradicting the letter. He contends that the letter is admissible without authentication and should be construed to say that Wanta has no outstanding taxes owed to the State of Wisconsin. The Commission properly refused to consider the letter for several reasons. First, the Department reasonably contends [*6] that the words "delinquent tax account" should not be construed to indicate that no tax is owed. A tax account is not considered delinquent if the matter is still in litigation. Second, the letter refers to Lee, not Leo Wanta. Wanta argues without any evidence that the letter refers to him because it utilizes his social security number, and the revenue agent who authored the letter could not have been referring to a record search involving "Lee E. Wanta." In the absence of evidence presented by the letter's author, its meaning is subject to dispute, and it is not self-authenticating or exempt from authentication under WIS. STAT. ? 909.01. In addition, Wanta offers no authority for the proposition that the Department can be estopped from collecting taxes based on one unclear sentence in a letter from one of its agents.

P7 Finally, Wanta also seeks to take advantage of a letter addressed to his ex-wife releasing her from further obligations regarding these tax assessments under the innocent spouse provisions of WIS. STAT. ? 71.10(6). Nothing in that letter suggests that the assessment has been paid or that the guilty spouse [*7] should benefit from the Department's decision not to pursue penalties against the innocent spouse.

By the Court.-Judgment affirmed.

This opinion will not be published. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(1)(b)5.

Wanta Dealing With Austria Now For Release of Trillions. What Happened to the American People?

Wanta principals say Vatican not involved in behind the scenes control of Wanta trillions. But other researchers disagree, saying the whole story now smells with Vatican/NWO deceit, as Wanta may have good intentions but being used as a patsy.

3 Oct 2006

By Greg Szymanski

According to Michael C. Cottrell, treasurer of the company formed by Ambassador Leo Wanta to distribute $4.5 trillion in repatriated off shore money, the Vatican is not involved in the behind the scenes shenanigans of blocking the release of the money.

But Eric Jon Phelps, author of Vatican Assassins, strongly disagrees. Phelps claims after researching the story and watching the story mature, every "sign and signal" in the story leads him to believe the Vatican is working hard behind the scenes to control Wanta and working "overtime, in fact, never to release one penny for the betterment of the American economy."

And Phelps accusations need to be taken seriously because ever since the Arctic Beacon started questioning Vatican involvement in the Wanta story, the publication's editor has been the subject of threats, harassment and CIA surveillance.

"Why would Wanta ever allow the money to be put into a Bank of America account or a Citibank account since the BOA is controlled by the Jesuits and Citibank is under Knights of Malta control," said Phelps regarding the transfer of the $4.5 trillion in June. "Why did he ever allow the money to be transferred into the hands of a third party when he supposedly has control of the money as legal trustor."

In fact, the Arctic Beacon recently asked the same question publicly, as legally Wanta was declared trustor of more than $27.5 trillion with supposed signatory power over the money spread in hundreds of foreign banks. Further, if Wanta is legal trustor, asked many readers, why does he have to enter into an agreement with the U.S government in the first place?

But instead of Wanta putting the money in his account after reaching a deal to repatriate $4.5 trillion, the money was transferred into a third party BOA and Citibank account, where then, according to Wanta and Cottrell, the Bush administration has illegally blocked the transfer, using the money in a nefarious manner to reap monetary benefits while usurping Wanta and the American people's legal right to the money.

"You have to question the Vatican involvement here," added Phelps. "They want to bring this country to its knees and never would they allow this much money back into the economy since we know they have control of our banking system through the CFR and control over the Federal Reserve."

Besides the Vatican being questioned as the real behind the scenes controllers of this story, Wanta has been at odds with the powers that be ever since he was declared legal trustor of more than $27.5 trillion accumulated as a result of his financial efforts on behalf of President Ronald Reagan to destabilize the Russian currency at the end of the Cold War.

Furthermore, Wanta was jailed for the better part of a decade for trying to return trillions to the American people, as Reagan had dictated, but later was backstabbed by the following three presidential administrations who instead wanted to illegally pocket the money for their own personal use, according to Wanta.

Previously, Wanta came forward with these allegations, presenting documentation of more $745 billion in misdirected and stolen money, attributing the thievery to those occupying the White House after Reagan left office.

Upon his release about a year and a half ago from a Wisconsin state prison, Wanta set out on a financial quest to repatriate the money according to Reagan's directives, in May entering into a negotiated settlement with the powers that be to return $4.5 trillion for the benefit of the U.S. economy.

Phelps added that it's hard to tell what Wanta's real role is in the story, but said either he is being used as a patsy or that the Vatican is in firm control of the entire series of events with the ultimate goal to "agitate the people and destabilize the economy" by creating a smokescreen while the powers that be continue stealing trillions of off shore money.

Although Phelps would like to believe Wanta's version of events, he added the "whole scenario" looks like a "Jesuit operation" to create confusion while further debasing the American government and bringing down the economy.

"You have to remember that the Jesuits and the Vatican control the New World Order and their goal is to destroy freedom and the American economy," added Phelps. "They will never allow anything good to happen and will release trillions into the economy."

On a recent radio show on a Christian station, Phelps said the reason the Arctic Beacon editor became the target of a stepped-up harassment campaign was because he began questioning Vatican and Jesuit control of the story. Szymanski also appeared on the show in order to leave a public record of the strange series of events, leading him to go public for protection and/or protection of Wanta, who has gone into hiding.

Until recently, Wanta has always "gone public" with his accusations and financial details about the repatriation settlement, but of late has been hiding away and staying out of the public eye, citing security reasons.

And it wasn't until last week, after the Vatican involvement was questioned and a strange sequence of events occurred involving the whole Wanta story, that finally prompted the Arctic Beacon editor to "go public" in an effort to protect his future, the future of his family and/or the safety of Ambassador Wanta.

As detailed in a recent article, Here is an update and the sequence of strange events that occurred:

According to principals close to the story, Wanta is keeping out of sight and a very low profile, fearing for his safety as the release of the money may only be days away.

According to Cottrell if the money isn't released in the next few days, he is prepared to go public again on Greg Szymanski's radio show, The Investigative Journal on the Genesis Communications Radio Network at www.gcnlive.com.

The following strange sequence of events, occurring after the Jesuit Order and Vatican's motives were questioned related to the Wanta story, took place in the following manner, leading the Arctic Beacon editor to go public in order to protect himself as well as protecting the safety of Ambassador.

The editor also told his story Saturday on a Christian radio network in order that the harassment and threats be immediately chronicled publicly, as and added measure of safety and protection for the parties involved. Here is the sequence of events as they occurred:

-----After an article appeared in the Arctic Beacon critical of the Vatican and Jesuits, a call was placed to the landline phone number of the editor on Sept. 21, asking for an unknown individual. The call was obviously placed from an Intelligence Agency since the number was non existent and was traced to be 489-489-4894.

-----After the editor conducted an interview with former Catholic Bishop of Guatemala, Gerard Bouffard, on Sept. 22, highly critical with eye-witness testimony implicating the Jesuit Order and Vatican as the spiritual controllers of the New World Order, a threatening email was received on Sept 23 essentially telling the editor to leave the country quickly or blood may be shed.

-----After several stories appeared in the Arctic Beacon questioning the Jesuit manipulation of the Wanta story and asking questions why Wanta was not communicating with an "old friend" who essentially verified his story, Wanta left a message on the editor's answering machine asking for a minor change, saying to call Cottrell since he was traveling. The funny thing about the call was that it was placed from a calling card number in a town very near the vicinity of the editor's residence.

-----On Sept. 28, the editor also received a message on his answering machine, saying the story had "created quite a stir" also indicating a minor word correction needed to be made on the story. Later in phone conversations, Cottrell indicated Wanta had called from nearby the editor's location, but was staying out of the public eye since he feared for his life. Cottrell added from what he knew and heard

Wanta's life was in danger and the editor was being put under surveillance and harassed, as a scare tactic to quiet down the story and perhaps give a clue to Wanta's location.

---- On Sept. 30 the editor received an email from France or Brussels, where Wanta has people handling his financial affairs, saying Wanta was going to meet with his "old friend", an international financier, as well as meet with the editor, saying "Amb Wanta will be seeing you soonest as well .... Further, he had never stated he did not want to speak w/you, but he is not in WI presently ...for security reasons."

---- In the late morning on Sept. 30, the editor received another call from Intelligence, this time from a man with a Middle Eastern accent asking if Raiti was home. The number again was traced as nonexistent and was the same 489-489-4894 number used on Sept. 21.

Commenting on the story further, Phelps said it looks like the powers that be want to create further world wide financial confusion by spreading the Wanta story. He added that if the money was released, he might think differently, but it appears the purpose is to spread endless confusion and further deflate the American economy.

Phelps' point is well-taken as many readers have commented that the story appears to spiraling "out of control with no end in sight." Furthermore, with each passing day the story gets stranger and stranger, creating world wide financial confusion while never ever getting close to really helping the American people.

"That's the Jesuit strategy," added Phelps. "This story looks like a perfect Jesuit tactic to agitate the people while reaching their goal of debasing the U.S. government around the world and destroying the economy. There is a very good chance they have been using this publication as a patsy, but once you called them on it, they realized you were on to them and that is when the harassment began, The Arctic Beacon has always stood for the truth and I applaud your efforts at having the courage to tell this story and try to get to the bottom of it while, at the same time, exposing that trillions of dollars have been stolen from the American people."

To illustrate the continued confusion being fueled here and abroad, Christopher Story, editor of the International Currency Review, one of the few journalists writing about Wanta, printed a story today, leaving the Arctic Beacon's tongue hanging out and wondering:

"Who's who and what is really happening behind the scenes of the '$27.5 trillion dollar man story?'"

The story is reprinted in order for readers to make sense out of it, as frankly we can't, and provide comments to the Arctic Beacon, as this publication thinks the Wanta story is spiraling out of control with no clear end in sight and no clear benefit to the American economy. The only benefit, however, is that the truth will one day be told and at least we understand how many trillions have been stolen from the American people.

By Christopher Story FRSA, Editor and Publisher, International Currency Review,
London, 3 October 2006

Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta, who is legally a resident of the Republic of Austria, has offered the new Austrian Government the opportunity to charge its standard 50% corporate tax on the entire portfolio of assets, worth originally $27.5 trillion, and now valued, with ongoing accruals, at in excess of $70 trillion.

He is legally the Principal of these funds.

This is because the White House and the U.S. Treasury have refused to honour Ambassador Leo Wanta's compromise $4.5 trillion settlement, which has been the subject of successive postings since June 2006 on this authorised website.

It is now October, and this farce has gone on for long enough.

In addition, the full value of the 2,000 tonnes of gold bullion acquired by Leo Wanta, during his Financial Warfare operations against the Soviet Union, in accordance with the direct instructions he received from President Reagan, will be chargeable to Inland Revenue tax in Austria.

He is also the Principal and owner of this gold.

VIENNA RECEIVES AMBASSADOR WANTA'S OFFER WITH UNDERSTANDABLE ENTHUSIASM

The incoming Austrian Government led by Chancellor Wolfgang Schuessel, and the Austrian Chancellor-designate, Alfred Gusenbauer, and their advisers, have received this offer with understandable enthusiasm, and are already working on arrangements for the payments, which will convert Austria into the richest nation country in Europe, and indeed the world.

Leo Wanta held back making this offer pending the $4.5 trillion Settlement with the US authorities, on which the US Treasury has repeatedly defaulted since June 2006.

Instead, the White House, Treasury and Federal Reserve have hijacked the funds as collateral for exotic off-balance sheet financial transactions in order to sustain the fiat $ money carousal from which officials have been enriching themselves in a grotesque abuse of power which may lead to the Second American Revolution.

WANTA ORIGINALLY ORDERED BY THE WHITE HOUSE TO RESIDE IN AUSTRIA FOR OPERATIONAL PURPOSES

Leo Wanta was ordered by the White House to go and live in Austria, from where he conducted extensive international intelligence operations in the 1980s and early 1990s on behalf of the US Government. With effect from June 1988, he obtained authorisation from the Austrian Court ? the sole means of obtaining Austrian residency ? to reside in Austria, where his business and personal accruals are taxable.

On 7th July 1993, he was kidnapped in Switzerland, while on US Government business and serving as Somali Ambassador (agreed with the White House) to Switzerland and Canada. He was thrown into a stinking, polluted Swiss jail, where Swiss intelligence tried to murder him by feeding him tainted cheese, and was illegally extradited in shackles after 134 days, to New York.

A United States Federal Court in Brooklyn threw out the US Government's case, but Leo was then illegally rearrested on the US Courthouse steps without a warrant, and was illegally extradited to Wisconsin, on trumped-up civil tax charges ? where he languished both in jail and under house arrest, for 12 years. The purpose of this cynical, heartless operation was to remove him from the scene so that the funds of which he is Principal could be diverted, stolen and cynically misappropriated.

INTERNATIONAL CURRENCY REVIEW TO PUBLISH DOCUMENTS EXPOSING THE SCANDA

Full exposure of this travesty, including the text of a letter containing a nexus of demonstrable lies from the FBI to the Wisconsin Assistant Attorney General, Douglas Haag, which was then forwarded by Mr Haag to the Wisconsin County Judge, Michael B. Torphy ? thereby perverting the course of justice ? will be exposed, along with an unprecedented presentation of related intelligence and documentation about this scandal, in the forthcoming issue of International Currency Review (1).

The FBI's lies conflicted absurdly with the parallel lies perpetrated by the CIA, which maintained to the international financial community and to its own deceived cadres, that Ambassador Wanta was dead. (A dead man cannot (yet) be tried in US Federal Courts, although he can evidently be tried in State Courts. This fiasco shows that the culture of lying, which permeates the US Government, is so crudely applied that the FBI and the CIA cannot even co-ordinate their lies to ensure they match).

Underlying these scandals was the determination of rival US criminal intelligence gangs to grab control of the $27.5 trillion that Leo Emil Wanta had assembled on President Ronald Reagan's instructions. The funds were regarded as 'fair game', and so a repulsive free-for-all ensued.

ALSO: THE CLINTONS STOLE AMBASSADOR LEO WANTA'S UNITED NATIONS CONTRACT # 4, WORTH $5.0 TRILLION

Following his successful 'takedown' of the Soviet Union by means of Presidentially authorised Financial and Economic Warfare operations, Leo Wanta was awarded control of United Nations Contract Number 4, worth $5.0 trillion. This was stolen from him, after he had been 'taken down', by the CIA's operative, President William Jefferson Clinton, and his CIA wife, Hillary Clinton.

OVER 200 PAGES OF WANTA BANKING TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS AND COORDINATES TO BE PUBLISHED

The forthcoming special issue of International Currency Review will display over 200 pages of Leo Wanta's banking and related documents illustrating and identifying banks, account coordinates and other relevant information ? including details of bank accounts which have been illegally brought under the control of others, and accounts opened in the personal name or names of American intelligence-related criminal operatives, with the funds placed corruptly in their own personal names. Publication of these documents will throw the international spotlight onto the biggest nexus of banking-intelligence scandals in world history.

SCARED CIA 'LAWYERS' AND INTELLIGENCE OPERATIVES, SEEKING WHAT'S COMING DOWN, HAVE PACKED UP AND EMIGRATED

Certain financially compromised US intelligence operatives known to have struck their corrupt fingers into this banking pie, have recently disappeared ? with some, it is now believed, having suddenly taken up residence in the Republic of Ireland, which has no extradition treaty with the United States because of Washington's hypocritical attitude towards Irish terrorists, who are for some reason considered acceptable. (The British have lost over 5,000 people murdered by these terrorists over the years, while more than 25,000 people have been injured).

U.S. OFFICIALS HAVE CYNICALLY WASTED FIVE PRECIOUS MONTHS PLAYING SELF-ENRICHMENT GAMES

The U.S. authorities have wasted five months playing illegal self-enrichment games with the $4.5 trillion belonging to Ambassador Wanta, which will now be payable in accordance with Ambassador Wanta's instructions into accounts under his control, that will be taxable by the Austrian authorities.

TWO GIANT WALL STREET FIRMS (NAMED BELOW) MUST DISGORGE THE $4.5 TRILLION ? PLUS THE INTEREST DUE

It will be necessary for the two Wall Street financial institutions which have been trading the $4.5 trillion illegally, to disgorge the full $4.5 trillion plus all the interest applicable since the beginning of July, for Ambassador Leo Wanta's taxable corporate accounts in Austria and as designated.

The identity of the two large US institutions that have been trading the $4.5 trillion ? in lieu of the funds being credited to Leo Wanta's Virginia-based AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc, as instructed by its Treasurer, Michael C. Cottrell, M.S., in unacknowledged correspondence to the US Treasury ? was revealed in a terse communication from Ambassador Wanta to President George W. Bush Jr. on Friday 29th September 2006.

This referred to the fact that economic receipt of the long since formally agreed financial Settlement worth $4.5 trillion, was 'still unlawfully delayed within Goldman Sachs/Citibank, as clearly acknowledged within our US Department of the Treasury et al'.

DETAILS OF THE ORIGINAL TRANSACTION ? FOR THE RECORD

As a consequence of its blatant banditry with Ambassador Leo Wanta's funds [see earlier postings on this website for details], the US Treasury, Federal Reserve and the White House have forfeited the residual respect of the entire international financial community. And the US Treasury has 'lost' $11 trillion to date by way of tax windfall payments from Wanta's operations, since midsummer 2006.

But such behaviour by the US authorities is nothing new, as will now be explained.

The original (late 1980s) refunding requests, met by a consortium of 200+ international banks, consisted of two tranches, as follows:

** $12 trillion of 'Fresh Cut' promissory bank Notes earning 7.5% interest annually, for 20 years and one day, with Swiss Bank Corporation and Deutsche Bank being the issuing bank for the funders [Transaction code: DKGGO 83188 and JOS-TT-0001].

** $15 trillion of 'Fresh Cut' Promissory Bank Notes earning 7.5% interest annually, for 20 years and one day, with Banque Romande as the lead Funding Bank [Transaction Code: G.O.C.H. 11 0888].

The Collateral Code for both tranches was EFG JACOBIE/ICC400/322/C3416, with Barclays Bank Plc (London) and ABN-AMRO Bank (Amsterdam) being the lead banks handling the collateral.

The purposes of this transaction, which was the largest ever arranged, included buttressing the fragile dollar-based banking system; filling in gaping holes following the criminal ransacking of the US Savings and Loan institutions by criminalised US intelligence cadres; and providing US officials with the financial resources to 'manage' the intended 'post-Cold War' environment. As President Ronald Reagan's most trusted intelligence aide, Leo Emil Wanta was given the responsibility, as Principal, for controlling and managing these funds in accordance with his Presidential instructions.

Promissory Bank Notes (PBNs) are one form of bank instrument that are used by nation states and international institutions for debt-financing purposes. They are also used as the basis for arbitrage transactions, which are illegal in the United States, but not elsewhere. In the original transaction, for an overall face value of $27.5 trillion, the PBNs were purchased by a consortium of foreign banks, mainly in the Far East and Europe. The funders agreed to purchase the PBNs at 71.5% of their face value, to be repaid at par in 20 years and one day, plus an annual interest rate of 7.5%. The PBNs were sold by the consortium of 200+ banks at a cost of 61.5% ? the 10% difference being made up of bank fees, suppliers' (collateral) fees, funding agents' fees and various commission fees, together with monies targeted for various countries to finance agreed projects.

1991 REPORT CITED SIMILAR FRAUD COMMITTED BY U.S. BANKS, ON U.S. GOVERNMENT INSTRUCTIONS

As noted, the loan transaction was the largest ever put together. By 22nd February 1991, some two-thirds of the overall transaction had been completed. A report of that date on the transaction leaked, to International Currency Review and published in 2003 and 2005(2), contained this statement:

"The remaining monies for disbursement have been held by the US banks, for reasons which can only be described as fraudulent, under the direct instruction of the US Government, for over a year and a half.

In addition, there has been a conspiracy of misinformation, orchestrated at the highest levels of the US Government, regarding the exact whereabouts of these monies, and the timing of the payout. These monies should have been paid out in June 1989, or shortly thereafter' (3).

A REPLAY OF THE 1989-91 MONEY-MAKING SCAMS ? BUT WITH THE SPOTLIGHT SHINING IN THEIR GREEDY FACES

Sounds familiar? A replay of such behaviour has taken place since June 2006, when the formal Wanta Settlement, signed off by the US Supreme Court, the President, the US Treasury Secretary, the Chairman of the Federal Reserve, and senior legislators last December, should have been initiated ? prior to taxable business transactions beginning in July 2006 which would have netted the US Treasury some $11 trillion by now, plus massive windfall tax revenues payable to the cash-strapped states of Virginia and Pennsylvania, as described in our earlier reports.

But instead of honouring their obligations, the seemingly mentally deficient operatives in the White House, the US Treasury and Federal Reserve, and their intermediary associates in the banking and intelligence communities, preferred, predictably, to revert to their usual untaxed off-balance sheet self-enrichment ploys, as in 1989-91 ? using the $4.5 trillion brought across the foreign exchanges from April to June 2006, as 'collateral'.

GRAVE CONSEQUENCES OF THIS OFFICIAL CRIMINALITY ARE NOW ANTICIPATED

This time round, however, the spotlight has been shining in their faces ? a fact which does not seem to have deterred those concerned, from their reckless determination to indulge in a frenzied orgy of self-enrichment ? without regard for the consequences.

These, however, are now likely to be so severe that the whole world may be rocked to its foundations ? unless there is a sudden, belated change of attitude at the highest levels in the US official structures.

It goes without saying that the reputation of the US Treasury, the Federal Reserve and of certain US institutions is suffering, as the international financial community contemplates the prospective fall-out from this latest demonstration of American official arrogance.

And quite apart from what is now very liable to happen in the United States itself at any time, consequent upon the reprobate failure of the US authorities to fulfil their obligations ? and to prefer de facto default in order to buy more time for self-enrichment ? the banks also face an unprecedented crisis.

Let us consider specifically what this implies.

WHAT 'CALLING THE WANTA MONEY' ACTUALLY MEANS IN PRACTICE: AN EXAMPLE

At a certain bank in Central London, there is a lock box belonging to corporations owned by Ambassador Wanta, and it is open to the Ambassador to walk into this institution at any time, having made an appointment for the purpose, to request to open the lock box in the presence of the Bank Custodian, and to dispose of the real assets contained therein, as he sees fit. The bank must of course implement his instructions. If these assets have been used illegally as collateral for hypothecation purposes, so that their withdrawal from this bank might cause not just the bank in question, but other banks with which it has been merged, to collapse, that is not the Ambassador's problem any longer. Mr Wanta has been leaning over backwards for months to 'provide space' for the American authorities to fulfil their Settlement obligations ? so that the banks which have stolen and diverted funds for collateral and hypothecation purposes, could be let off the hook.

But the US Treasury and the White House seem to prefer the prospect of a global financial calamity, to the simple task of ordering the $4.5 trillion to be transferred to the relevant securities accounts of AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc [see ID and taxation coordinates below].

BANKS HAVE BEEN USING AMBASSADOR WANTA'S FUNDS FOR THEIR OWN BOOKS, AS A MUTUAL SURVIVAL 'FLOAT'

The banks holding Leo Wanta's real assets, while he was so conveniently taken 'out of the way' on trumped-up charges for 12+ years (as it turned out), so that the funds could be diverted and stolen, have been using them for their own books ? institutionalising the system of interbank pledges and ledger entries (ledger to ledger).

In other words, the banks are supporting each other, using inter alia the vast float of funds generated from Leo Wanta's real assets, to keep themselves solvent.

Naturally, the institutions concerned are individually and collectively anxious (an understatement) for the Leo Wanta Settlement to be finalised ? because they will thereby be 'off the hook', in the sense that the assets will not be called, so that they will not, accordingly, be required to account for their source of funds, and use of funds. That would be anathema for them, since in many cases the funds have been diverted, collateralised, and/or stolen.

U.S. TAX EVADERS MAY STILL FACE A SHOWDOWN, WHILE AMERICANS WILL GO ON PAYING MORE TAX

The US intermediaries who have been generating money and storing their profits in unreported offshore bank accounts, will still remain liable to be indicted for tax evasion, if the US Internal Revenue Service (IRS) ? which has been in gross dereliction of its duty of fairness to all US taxpayers ? finally gets round to investigating the convoluted financial affairs of the self-enrichment officials and others who have been cynically milking the US dollar fiat money system for their own benefit while occupying official positions.

And following the failure of the Treasury to order the $4.5 trillion belonging to Ambassador Wanta to be credited to his Virginia corporation's securities accounts with designated US institutions, not only does the Treasury now face the prospect of losing the further trillions in tax accruals that had been intended, but the badly betrayed American people will clearly be condemned to shoulder ever-increasing taxation burdens indefinitely.

This is because the Bush II White House prefers the fiat money carousel, which generates ever-expanding 'hidden' Federal budgetary debts that have been growing exponentially for over a century ? but which also enable senior officials to enrich themselves off-balance sheet without paying tax. Over the medium term, the volume of such untaxed US 'funny money' that will have been generated will destroy the dollar ? which may even be the intention (for it to be replaced by a world currency).

The United States is going to regret defaulting on Leo Wanta's Settlement: and it is likely that the American people will have something decisive to say on this matter.

THE UNITED STATES' CATASTROPHIC LOSS WILL BE THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA'S GAIN

But the Republic of Austria, which provided Leo Wanta with hospitality and security in the years before the criminal cadres took complete control in the United States, will become the richest nation in Europe ? and indeed, in the world.

Work started on details of the new arrangements with the Austrian authorities and Chancellor-designate Alfred Gusenbauer, on the evening of Sunday 1st October 2006, when it became clear that the US authorities were not interested in the trillions of tax accruals payable under the Wanta Settlement, on which they have reneged.

Quite rightly, the Austrians see this is an opportunity not to be missed: and they will be hastening completion of the formalities with the Ambassador over days and weeks ahead.

And Americans, facing mid-term elections shortly, will be demanding to know why the Bush II White House has let them down so badly.
